

Three Bomber Matmen Named to All-County

Mike Kuhn

Romeo Battazzi

Joe Walczyk

East Rochester High School's wrestling team placed three members on the Monroe County Eastern Division All-County Team that was selected this week.

They are 126 pounder Mike Kuhn; Romeo Battazzi at 132 pounds; and Joe Walczyk at the 138 class.

Kuhn, sporting an undefeated 10-0 record in dual matches, and 8-0 in league competition is one of the favorites to win in his division when the Class A Sectionals get under way Feb. 22 and 23 on the East Rochester mats.

Battazzi is 8-0 in the league and 9-2 in dual scraps while Walczyk is 6-1 in loop scraps and 7-3 overall.

The sectionals are the first step toward a chance to get to the state intersectionals in Syracuse, March 7 and 8.

In between the Class A sectionals here and the title matches in the Salt City are the Section 5 inter-class matches to be staged at the RIT mats Feb. 29 and March 1.

East Rochester has finished in second place in the county east and will clash with Gates-Chili of the county west in the annual interleague rivalry. The match is to be at Penfield with first faceoff at 6:30 Saturday night.

It will be followed by the match between first place east league Irondequoit and county west's top team, Brockport at 8 o'clock.

Bomber Jayvee action on Saturday has Jim Tortorici's locals colliding with a visiting Gates-Chili team at 2 p.m.

Friday afternoon, East Rochester Jayvees will host a visiting Spencerport team with the first match at 4 o'clock.

Bomber Coach Don Quinn announced that the Class A sectionals start with Friday afternoon preliminaries at 4:30 and the quarterfinals getting under way at 6 p.m. on Saturday, the semifinals open at 11 a.m.; the consolation rounds at 2 p.m.; and the scraps for 3rd and 4th place consolation credits at 6:30 p.m.

Championship finals are scheduled to start at 8 p.m.
