

WRESTLING

The 1970 Golden Eagles were guided by the excellent coaching of Mr. Jerry Freischlag and Mr. Don Murray.

Since the start of wrestling at Brockport in 1962, the Eagles have a total record of 51-23-4. Since 1968 when the famed "super sophs", who are now seniors, started for the Eagles, the record has been 20-5-1 with two runner up shots in the SUNY Conference. In the last part of the 1970 season the Eagles were 11-4.

There were three seniors on this fine 1970 squad. They were Regan Beers, All America prospect, 1969 Outstanding Wrestler, 1968 & 69 Most Falls, 1968 & 69 SUNY Conference Champ; Jack Mahony 1969 Buffalo AAU Champion; and Paul Gogol, 4th SUNY Conference.

Continued success is expected after 1970 because of the returning of Juniors, Rich Carlson, 4th SUNY Conference and Bill Steinhaus as well as the fine sophomores, Bob Campagne, Paul Conklin, Bon Edwards, Terry Gates, Chuck Neidzalkowski, Paul Levis, Bill Dibacco, and Jim Bowins.
