

Blue-Chip Matmen In Olean

1-6-83

A blue-chip cast of high school wrestlers from Western New York and Northwestern Pennsylvania will be on display Friday and Saturday in St. Bonaventure University's Reilly Center for the Olean Wrestling Tournament.

Some 600 bouts are expected to be recorded (two rounds championships, two rounds wrestlebacks) opening night.

The fourth annual event, with 31 schools in the field, is sponsored by the Olean High School Wrestling Booster Club and Manufacturers Hanover Bank, with the action scheduled to start on eight mats at 3 p.m. Friday.

Action will resume at 11 a.m. Saturday with the championship bouts in 14 weight classes slated to begin at approximately 7:30 Saturday night.

A Most Outstanding Wrestler will be selected and awards will be presented to the top six place-getters in each class.

Six who won titles last are back including Falconer's Jeff Waddington and Joel Sopak, Maple Grove's Mark Hetrick, Iroquois' Mike Monile, Salamanca's Dave Zariczny and Olean High's Lee Anzivine.
