

F. F. A.

"Autumn and dead leaves burning in the sharp air" was the scenery for the Future Farmers' third annual school fair. The boys took the first-place farm-shop award at the County Fair. Donald Churchill, Leon Hagen, and Frank Kelsey took the team's blue ribbon in the Farmers' Roundup livestock contest." Major trips included: State Fair, Horticultural Show, Massey-Harris, and steelmill.

Back Row: A. Scroger, L. Hagen, R. Winkstern, M. Scroger, K. Skelton. Second Row: F. Kelsey, D. Yerger, D. Hagen, D. Scroger, A. Grehlinger, G. Moore. Front Row: A. Luthart, R. Kawacz, Mr. G. Messinger, J. Forsyth, A. Luhmann, L. Ganshaw. Seated: W. Goetz, G. Scroger. Absent: D. Churchill, G. Forsyth, R. Graves, L. Halat, H. Mudrzynski, E. VanderKooi.

AG. BASKETBALL

The Ag. basketball team made a creditable showing this year with four victories and one loss. The team gained K. Skelton, D. Hagen, G. Scroger, A. Scroger, R. Graves, and W. Goetz this year. Henry Mudrzynski was manager and Erwin VanderKooi acted as coach. Alexander, Bergen, Corfu, Elba, Pavilion and Oakfield-Alabama comprised the league.

Back Row: Alvin Scroger, Rodney Winkstern, Kenneth Skelton. Second Row: Duane Hagen, Donald Churchill, Frank Kelsey, Henry Mudrzynski. Front Row: Gerald Scroger, Erwin VanderKooi, Robert Graves, Wayne Goetz.

Mr. George Messinger
Coach

Back Row: Roger McGee, Allan Grehlinger, Herbert Oakes, Duane Hagen, George Forsyth. Second Row: Teddy Czuba, Fred Ferris, James Forsyth, Jerold Mooney. Front Row: Mr. Messinger, Frank Kelsey, Gerald Scroger, Gilbert Dutton.

WRESTLING

"Noteworthy," to quote an editorial in the "BATAVIA DAILY NEWS" of March 21, 1951, "was the triumph of the Oakfield-Alabama Central School wrestling team's capturing of the Genesee-Orleans wrestling championship." This entitled the winning grapplers to enter the Rochester sectionals on April 7.

They won all but three of their thirteen matches; McGee was undefeated.

