COACH CLYDE "WHITEY" COLE
CAPTAIN DONALD ROBINSON
MANAGER ROBERT ALLEN

Once again the grappling squad tutored by "Whitey" Cole turned in an impressive record. Despite two losses to Cortland and to powerful Lock Haven, the "Bombers" turned in an exceedingly impressive victory over Sampson, Wilkes, Alfred, Brooklyn Poly, and St. Lawrence. The victory over St. Lawrence marked that team's first loss in two years.

In addition the one and only Jim La Rock earned himself more laurels as he won the Inter-State (4-I) Invitational Meet at Cleveland. Jim came back with the 155 lb. title. Captain Don Robinson and Don Coletta also participated in this affair.

At Fort Collins, Colorado, Jim was eliminated in the quarter finals of the U.C.A.A. meet, but in the Junior A.A.U. competition he took second place in the 155 lb. class.

Competing in the 165 lb. class in the Senior A.A.U. meet at Iowa, Jim lost a questionable decision to the eventual winner in the semi-final bout. He took third place in the consolation wrestle-off.

Competing in the local District YMCA competition, Ithaca College wrestlers did well as Dick Hover emerged as the 121 lb. titlist. Captain Don Robinson took 128 lb. honors while the big boy of the squad, huge Pete DeStefano took the top honors in the unlimited class.
