W-FL Mat Quarterfinals Had Something for All

By NORM JOLLOW

WATERLOO - Except possibly for the 80 odd wrestlers who didn't win, hardly anyone went away from the 1965 Section 5 Class A quarterfinal tournament unhappy, Saturday night.

Mynderse Academy won the Wayne - Finger Lakes conference championship by scoring 100 points. Penn, Yan, which plays host to the Section 5 Class A semi-finals and finals next Saturday, will be well represented in the tournament with three survivors, most of any Wayne - Finger Lakes team.

Waterloo was the meet's biggest surprise, coming in second in the unofficial tournament standings with 71 points after posting only a 2-5 record in league play.

Geneva Hi gh copped two places in the semi - finals one talked about when it was through the eliminations here, over Saturday, but will join Penn Yan with three representatives, adding 310 pound Patsy DeVellis in the unlimited division for which there was no com- a 10-8 decision over third petition Saturday night.

The Wayne - Finger Lakes lineup for next Saturday when they face the Rochester City champions in the semi - finals, will find Geneva and Penn Yan with three representatives, Mynderse and Waterloo with two, and Canandaigua, Newark and Wayne with one each.

Host Penn Yan will have Paul Parkman at 133 pounds, Bob Mulberger at 165 and Bill LaRock at 180 to cheer for in the action next Saturday.

Geneva entries, in addition to es with a 2-0 decision. Geneva entries, in addition to DeVellis, are Pete Achilles, who ran his consecutive winning streak to 38 on Saturday, in the Marchenese at 127 pound division and Karl Marchenese at 127 pounds. Achilles will be seeking a second straight thield. However, with the section of Mynderse had appointed when a couple of his coisioned Ron Fritz (PY), 18-1.
