MATMEN FIRST UNDEFEATED TEAM IN I. C. HISTORY

The I.C. wrestlers downed Cortland State Sat., Mar. 3, by the score of 22-10, to record the first undefeated season in the history of the sport at Ithaca College. The win was doubly important for the I.C. grapplers as it gave them a win over their traditional rivals as well as a perfect season. The victory was achieved mainly through the efforts of Dick Dean and Paul (Red) Thomann, wrestling at 167 and 177 respectively, who secured falls when the winning team was very much in doubt halfway through the match. The successive falls by Dick and Red turned the tide in Ithaca's favor. Also coming through in fine style for the Bombers were Jim Howard at 130, Ed. Pucek at 137, John Ciabotti at 157, and John DeKay at heavyweight. Howard pinned his man for the first of the Ithaca points for the evening. Pucek and Ciabotti gained decisions while DeKay wrestled a much larger Cortland opponent to a draw. The outstanding match of the evening was at 137 where Ed. Pucek, trailing his man by three points (5-3) going into the last minute of the bout, scored a reversal and a near fall to gain a 6-5 decision.

Ithaca's perfect season was achieved by virtue of an 18-18 tie with Lock Haven State Teachers and consecutive wins over University of Toronto (29-5), Rochester Institute of Technology (21-13), East Stroudsburg State Teachers (29-5), Wilkes College (28-8), Alfred University (22-17), and Cortland State Teachers (22-10). The Bombers scored a total of 169 points as to only 76 points for their opponents during the season.

As well as the team having an undefeated season, individuals Jim Howard, Co-Captain Fred March, Dick Dean, Paul (Red) Thomann, and John DeKay also posted unbeaten records. Next year's outlook for the Bomber squad is excellent. The only loss to the team through graduation will be Co-Capts. Fred March and Al Peterson along with Ken Spenard.

A great deal of credit for the wrestlers' outstanding season should be given to Coach Herb Broadwell and Assistant Coach Bob Carlinghouse whose untiring efforts contributed so much toward the Bombers' fine season.
