

ECU Championship Wrestlers. Kneeling: Jim McCloe, Dan Monroe, Glenn Baker, Roger Lundy, Bruce Hall. Standing: Mike Spohn, Dick O'Lena, Roger Ingalls, Gill Hill, Tim Gay, John Huber, Coach Welborn.

Pre-season optimism proved to be well justified when the Pirate wrestling team pinned William and Mary in the Southern Conference tournament to glean its second consecutive title. The matmen scored impressive victories throughout the year as they compiled a 9-1-1 regular season record, but they took special pleasure in the 49-0 whitewashing of the Carolina Tarheels in a December meet.

Bruce Hall sets up an opponent for a take down.

an Monroe works on opponent with a cross-body ride.

Coach John Welborn seems pleased after a tough meet.

ECU Wrestlers Win S.C. Championship for Second Year

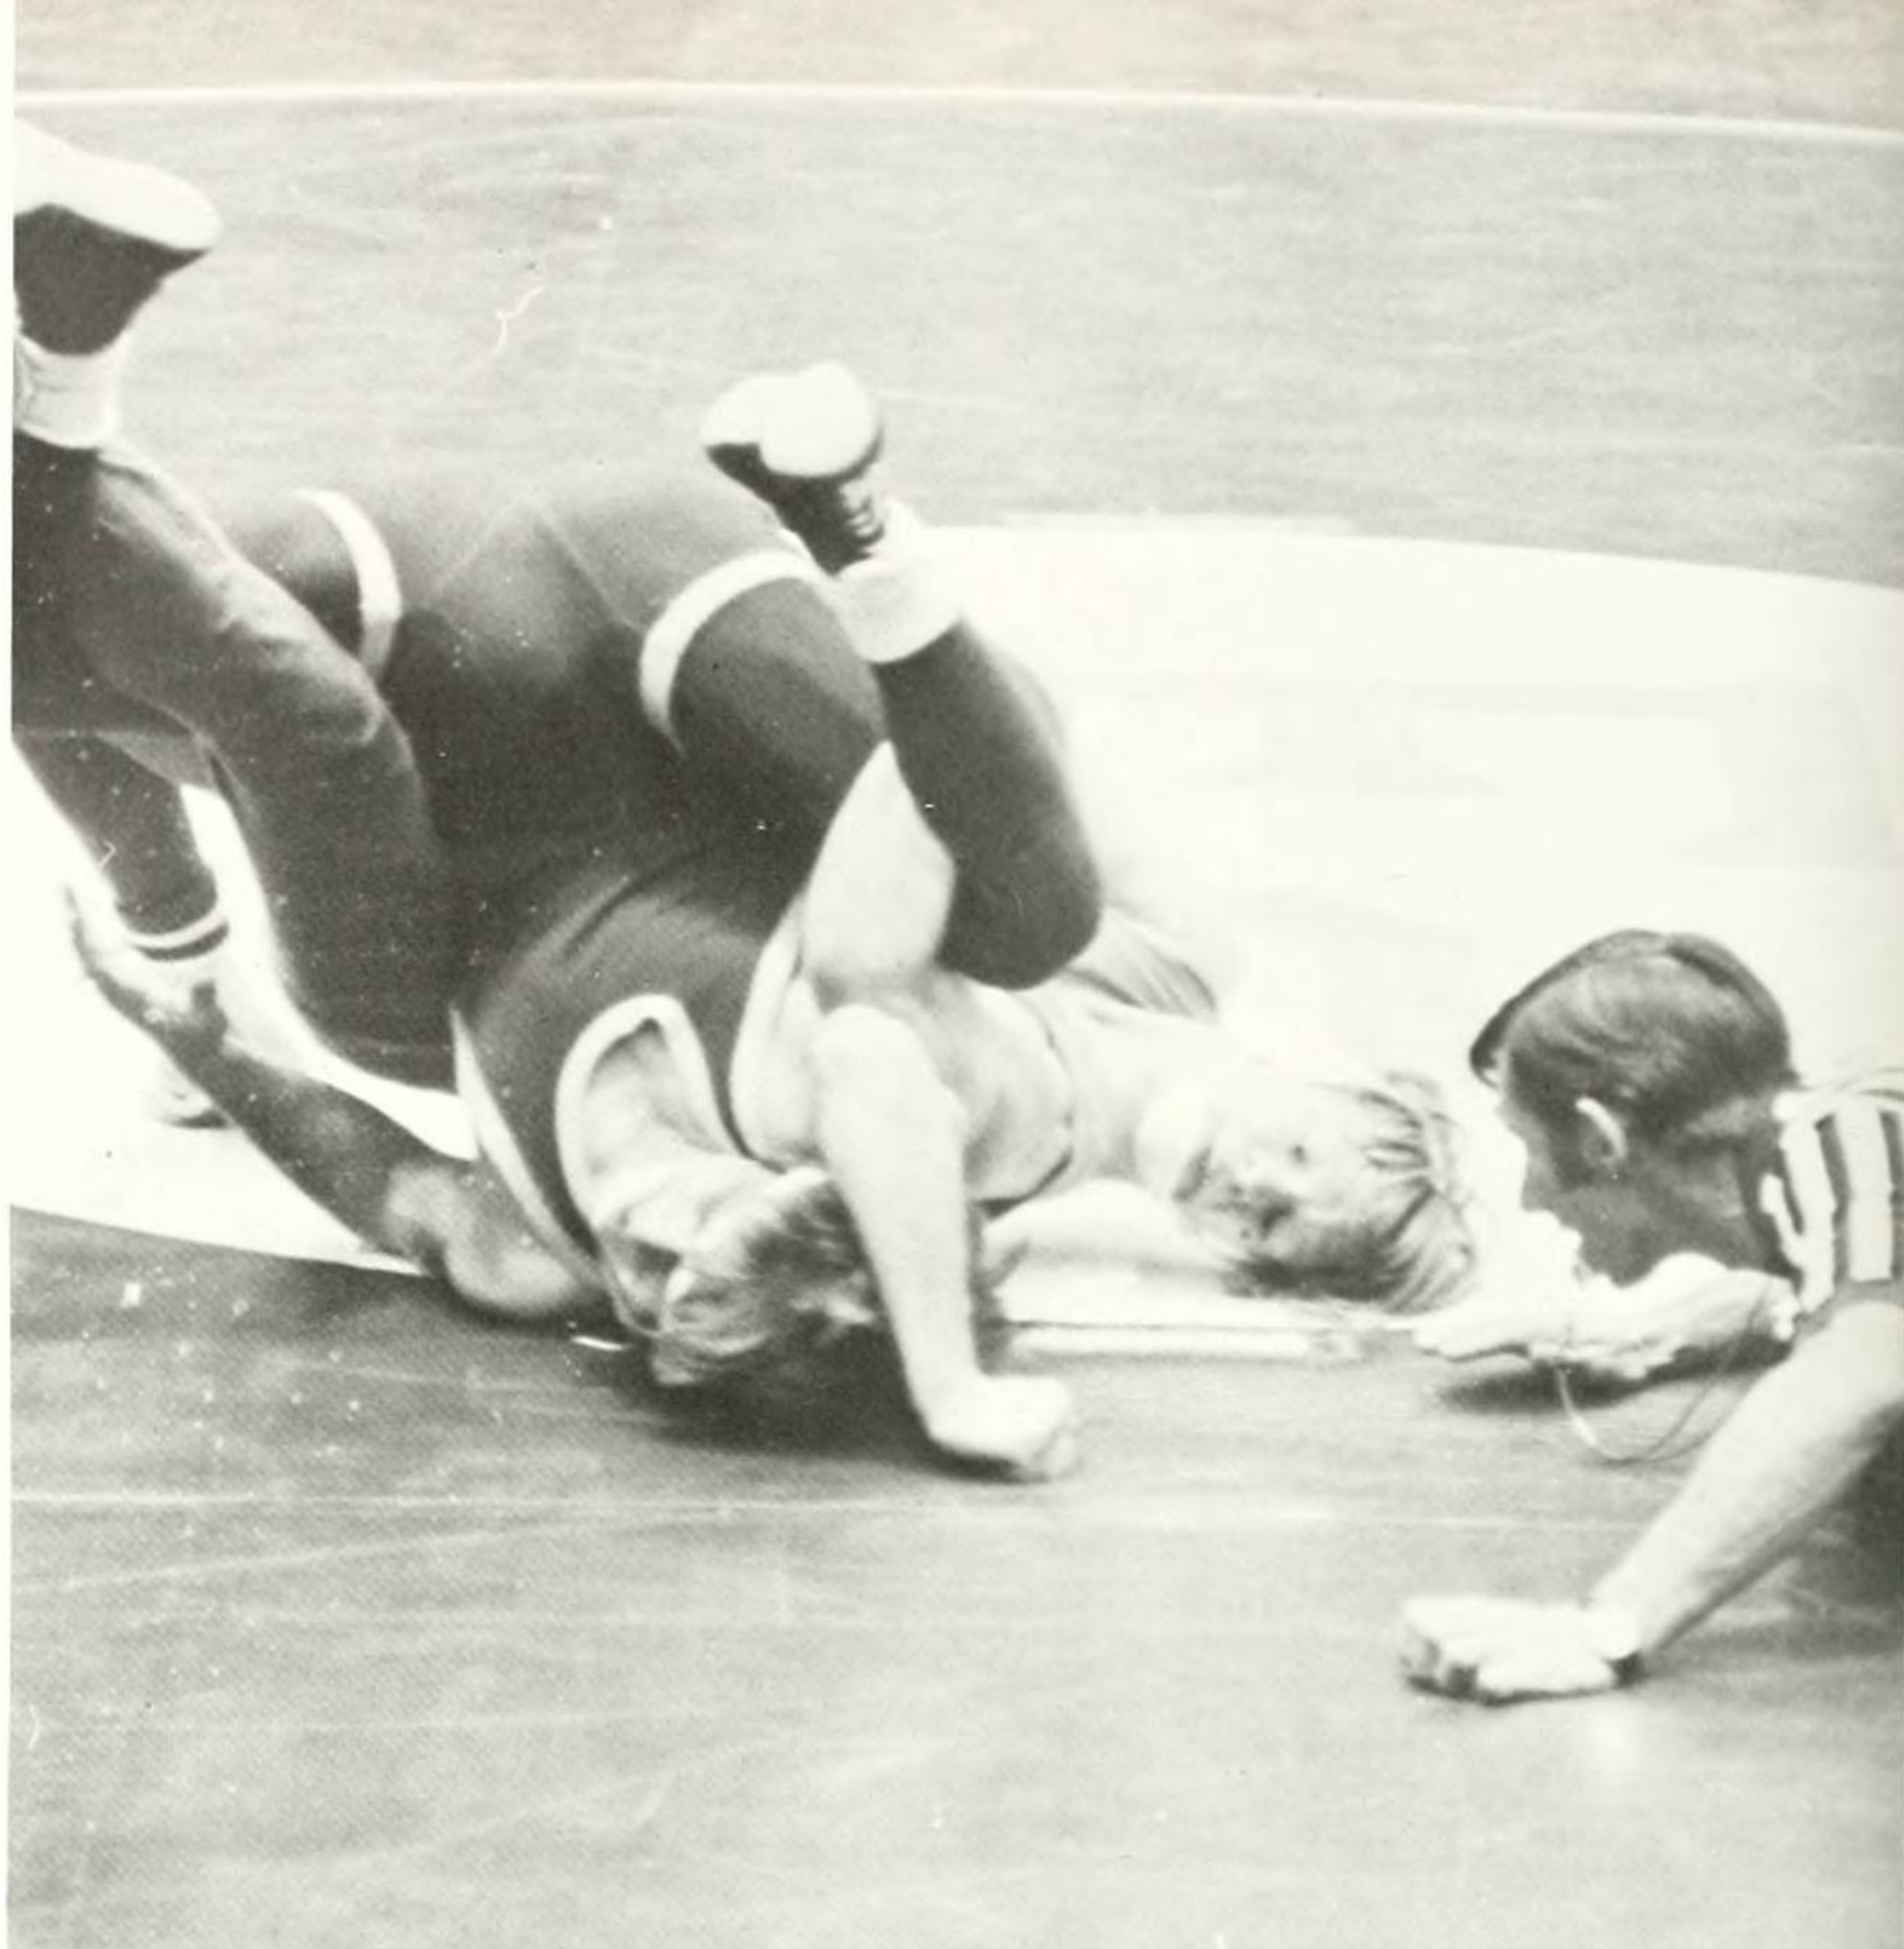

Stasovich presents John Welborn with trophy.

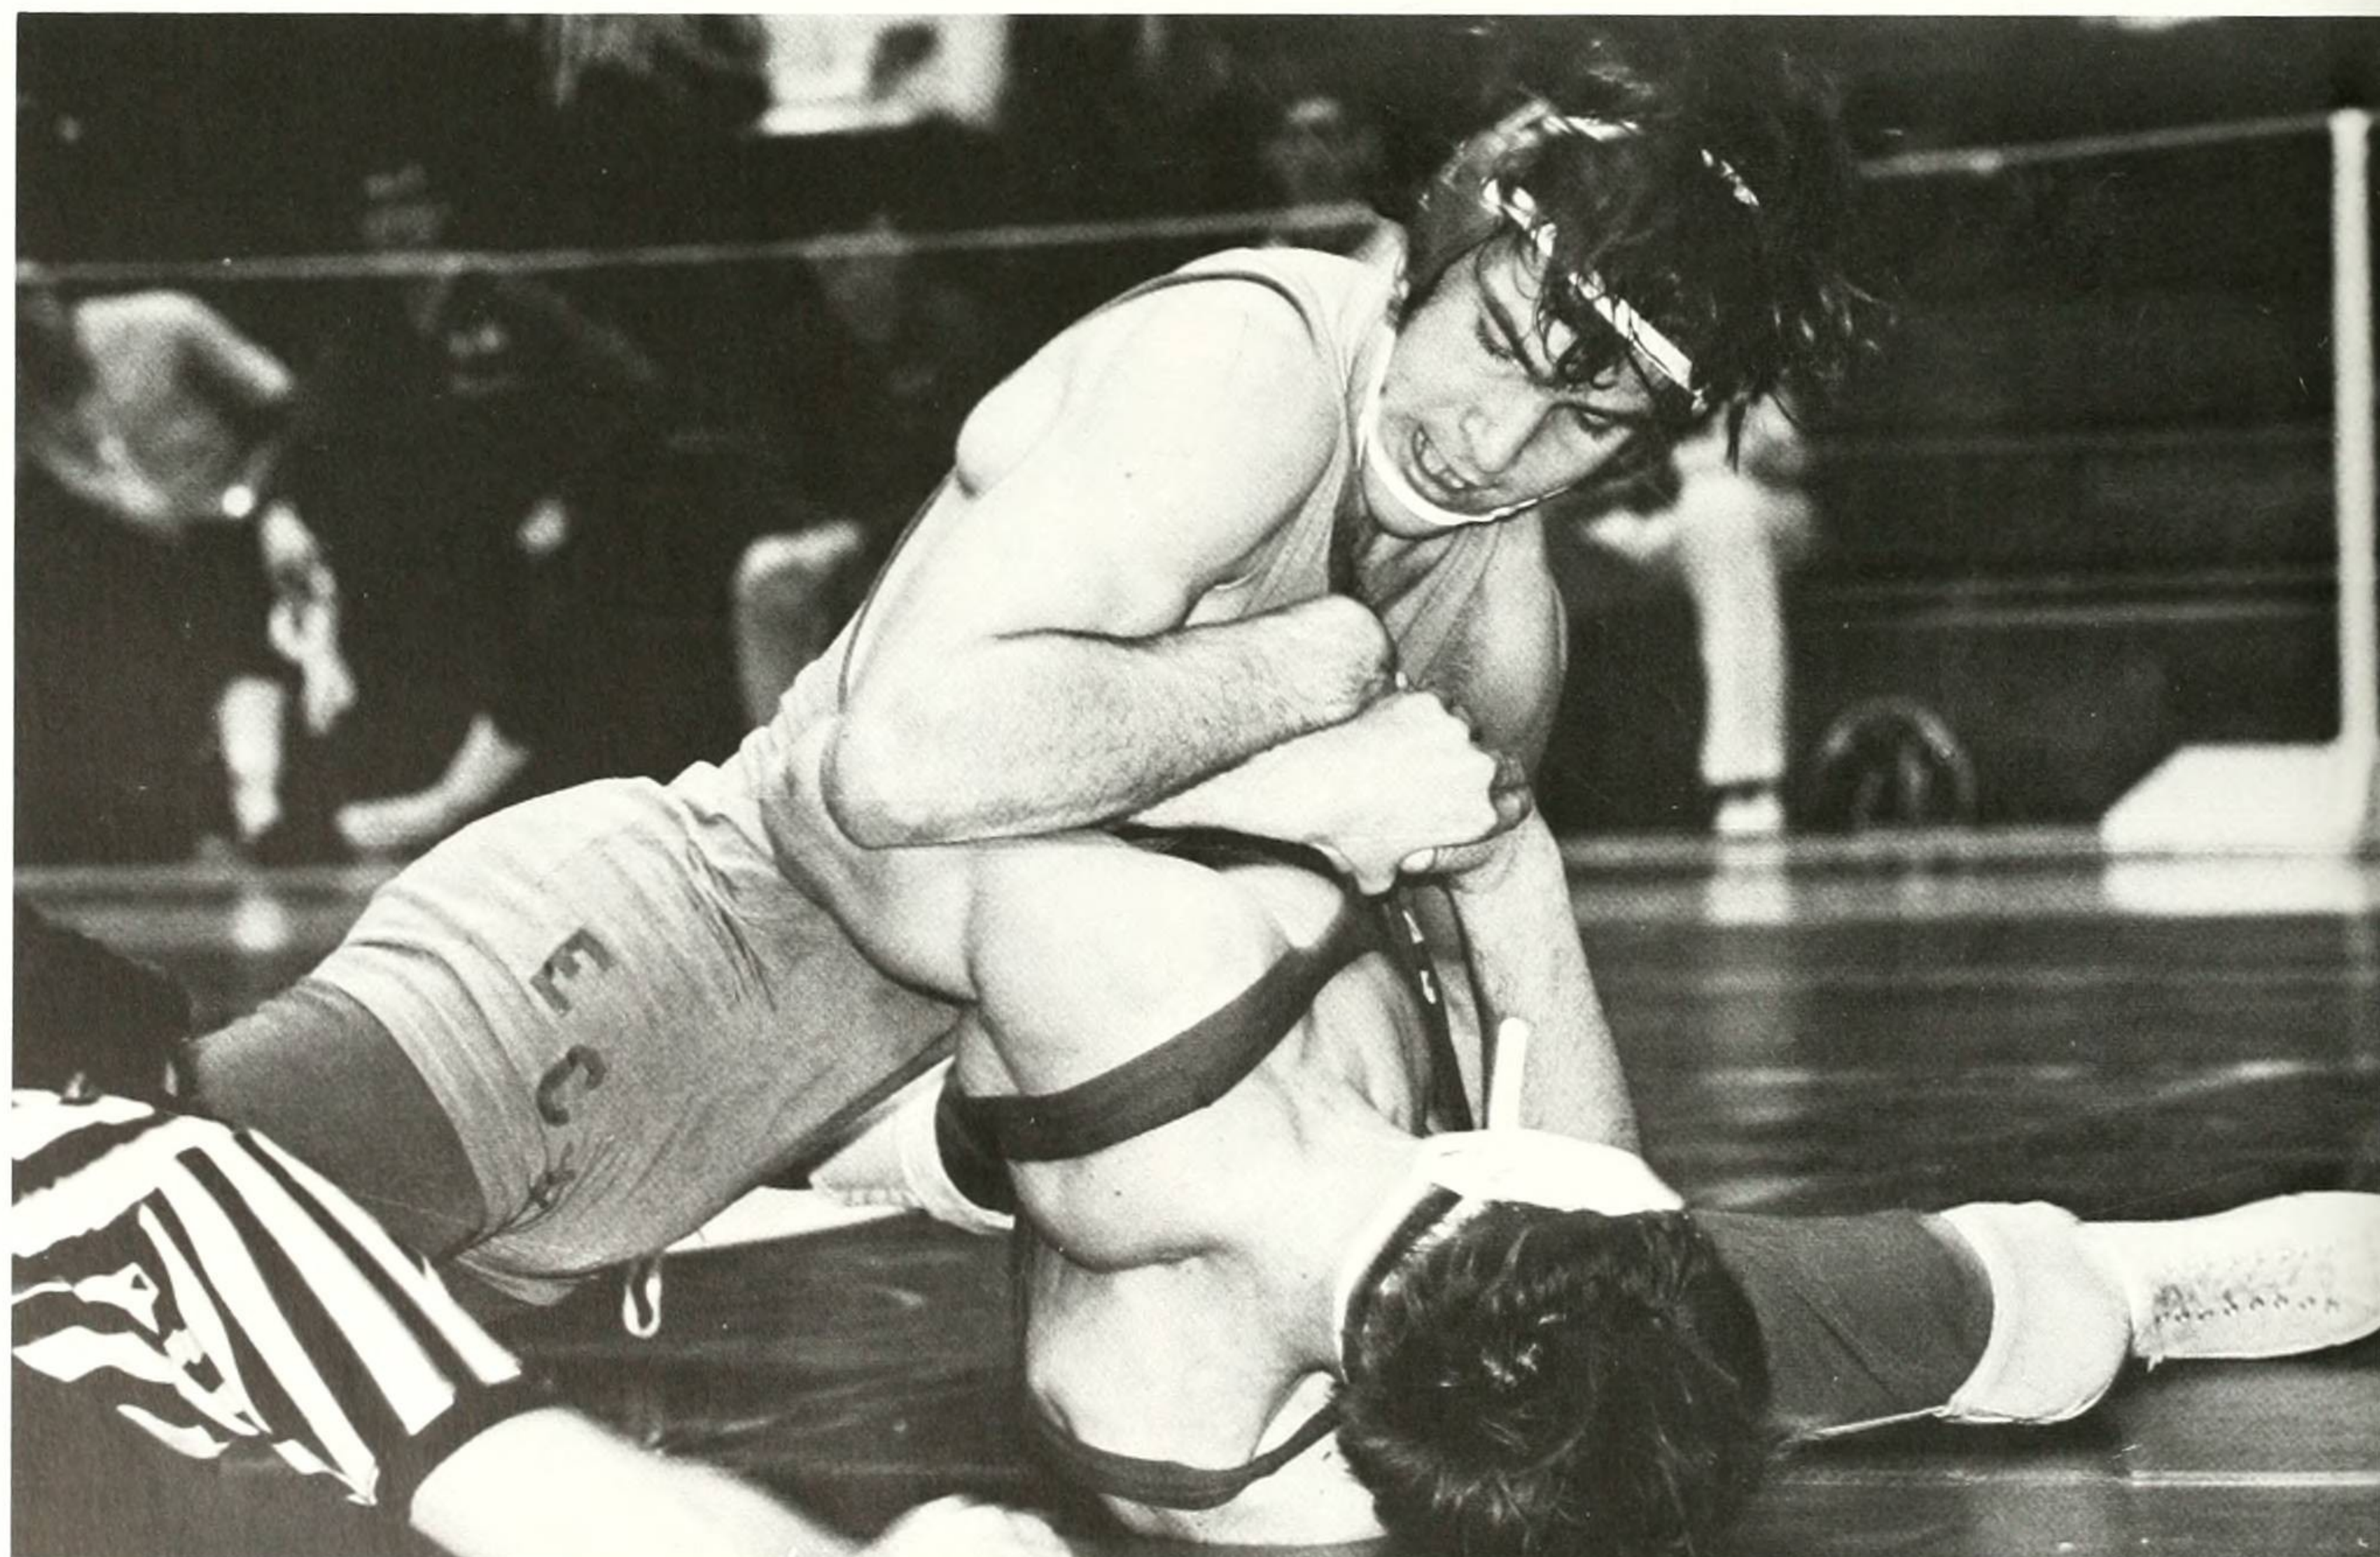

Grapplers Score Win Over UNC

Chief adversary in the SC tournament, however, was the powerful Indian squad of William and Mary. Although the grapplers had downed the Virginians earlier in the season, William and Mary nevertheless provided staunch competition. ECU finally claimed a 107-94½ victory in the two-day tournament in Minges Coliseum.

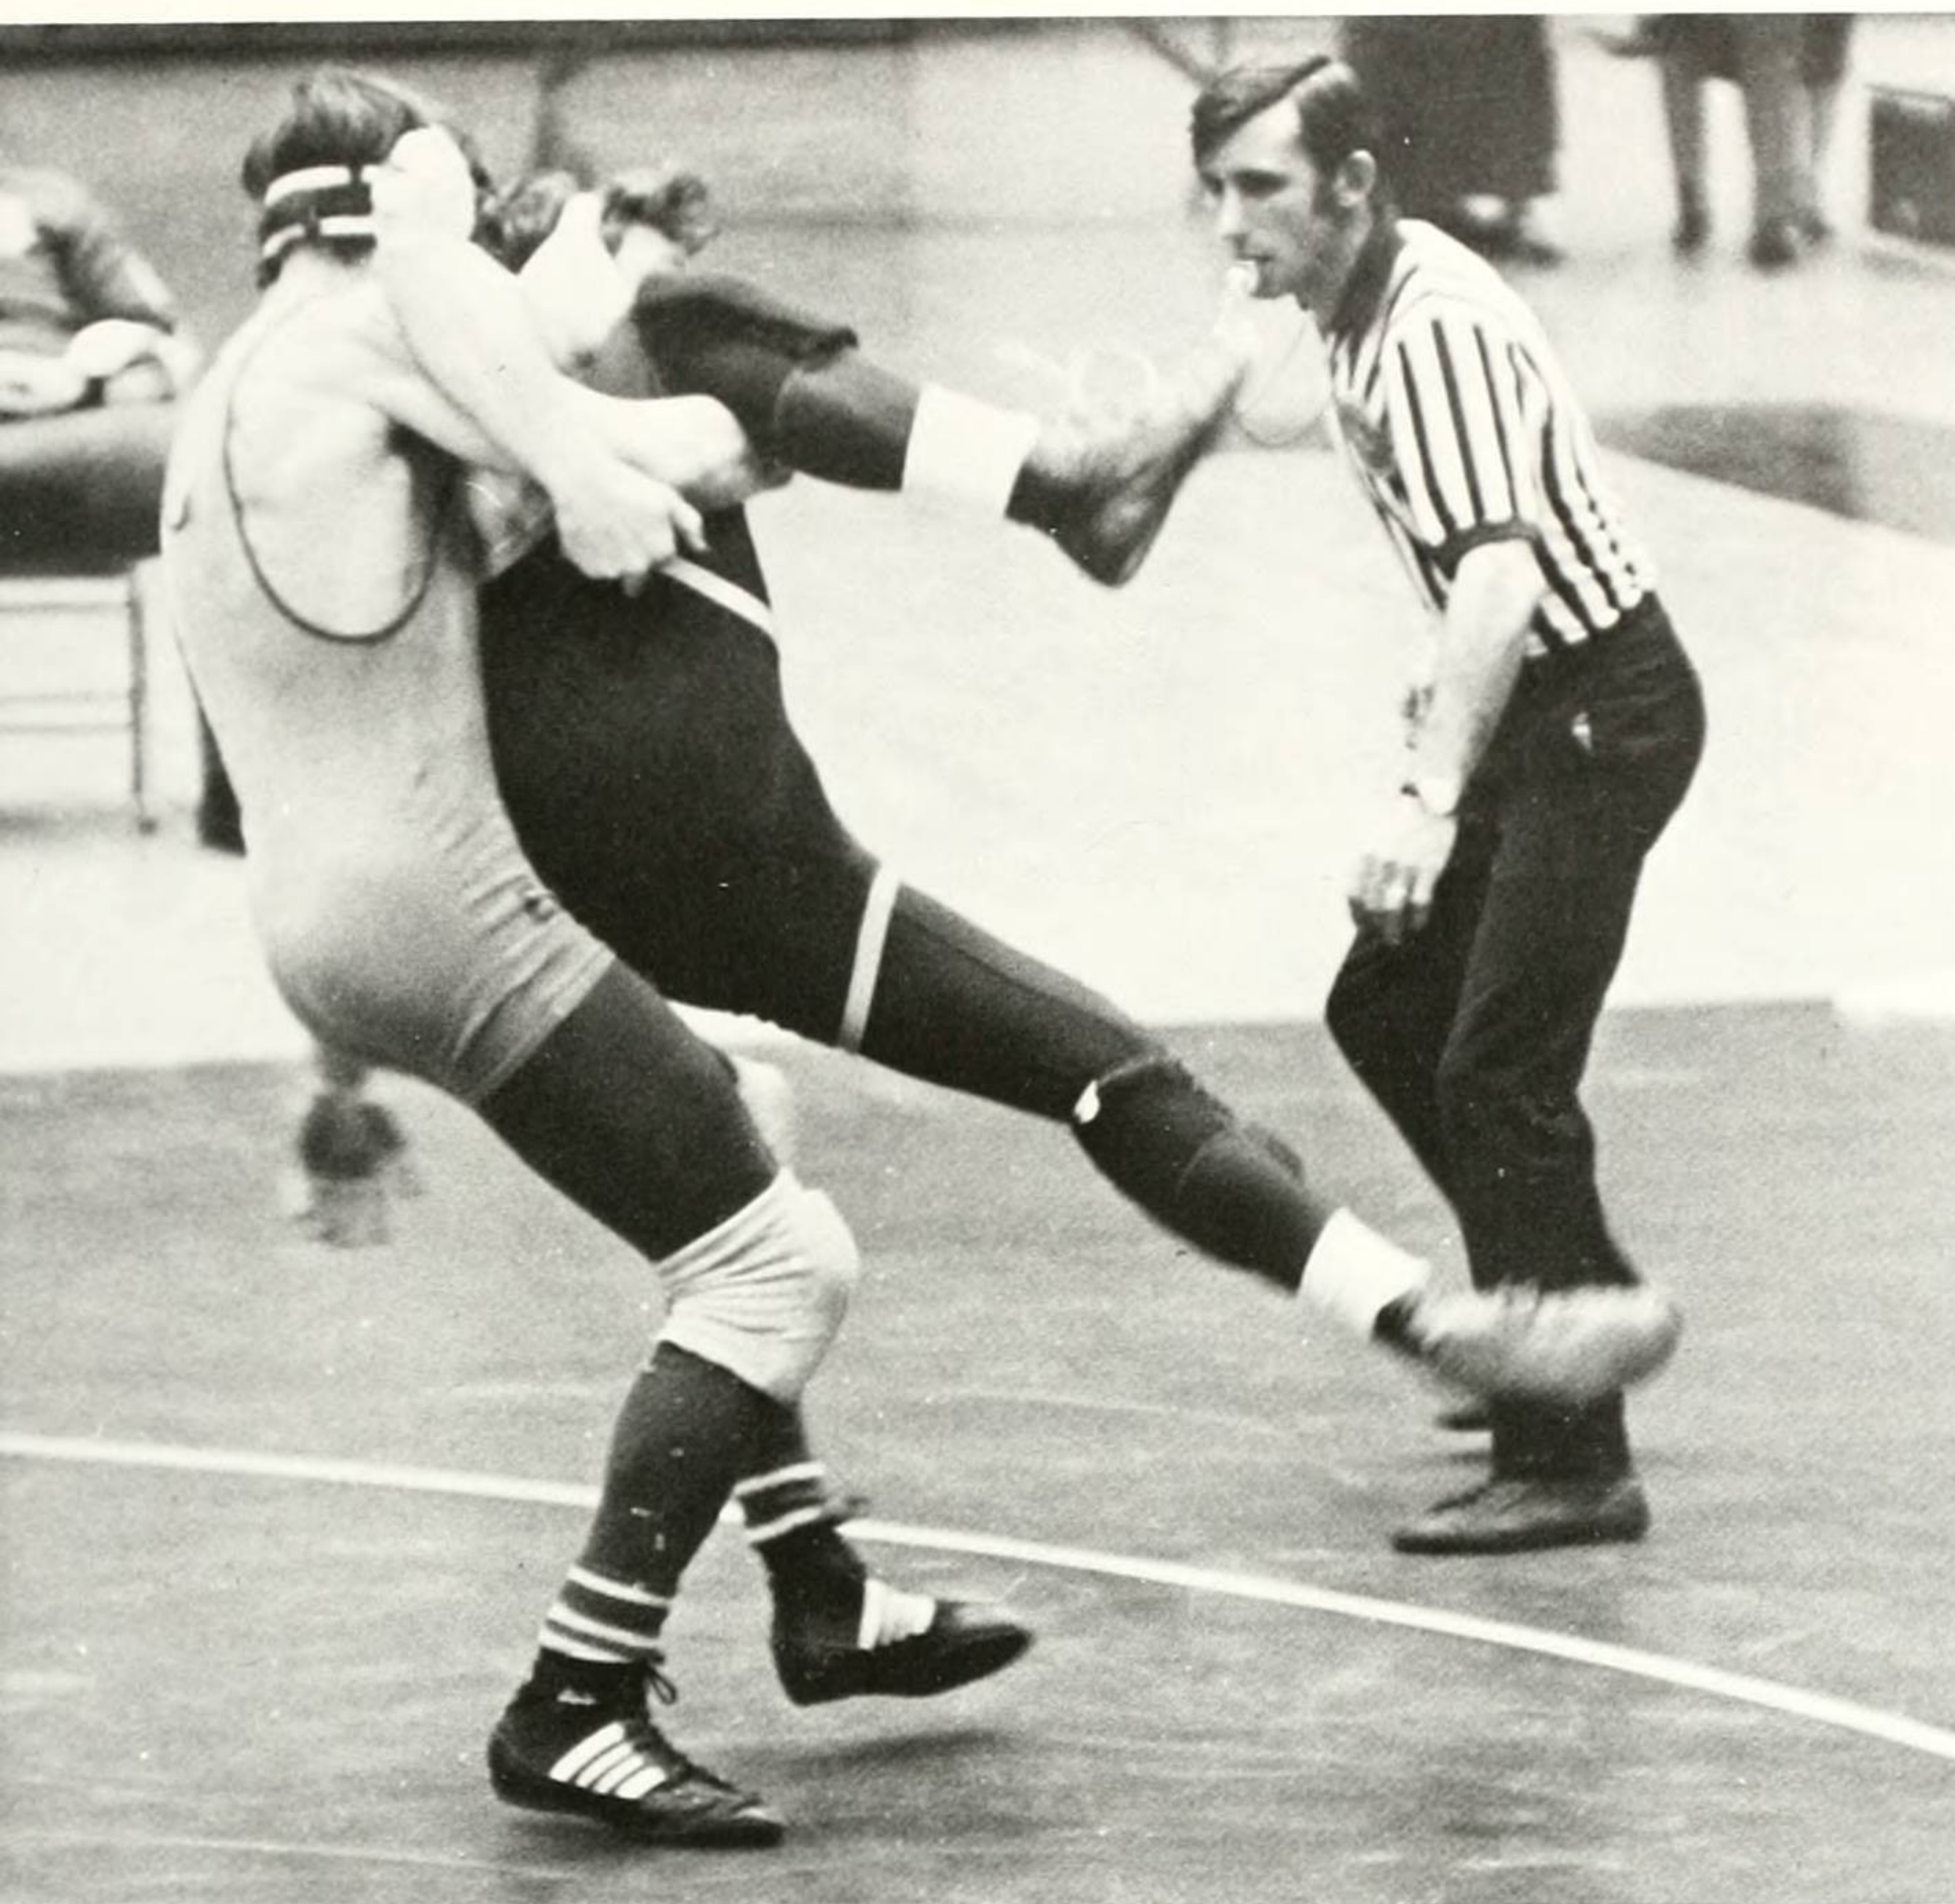

Glenn Baker, Dan Monroe, Jim McCloe, and Bill Hill went on to represent the Purple and Gold in the NCAA Championships but were defeated in early matches, thus ending an otherwise successful year on a disappointing note.

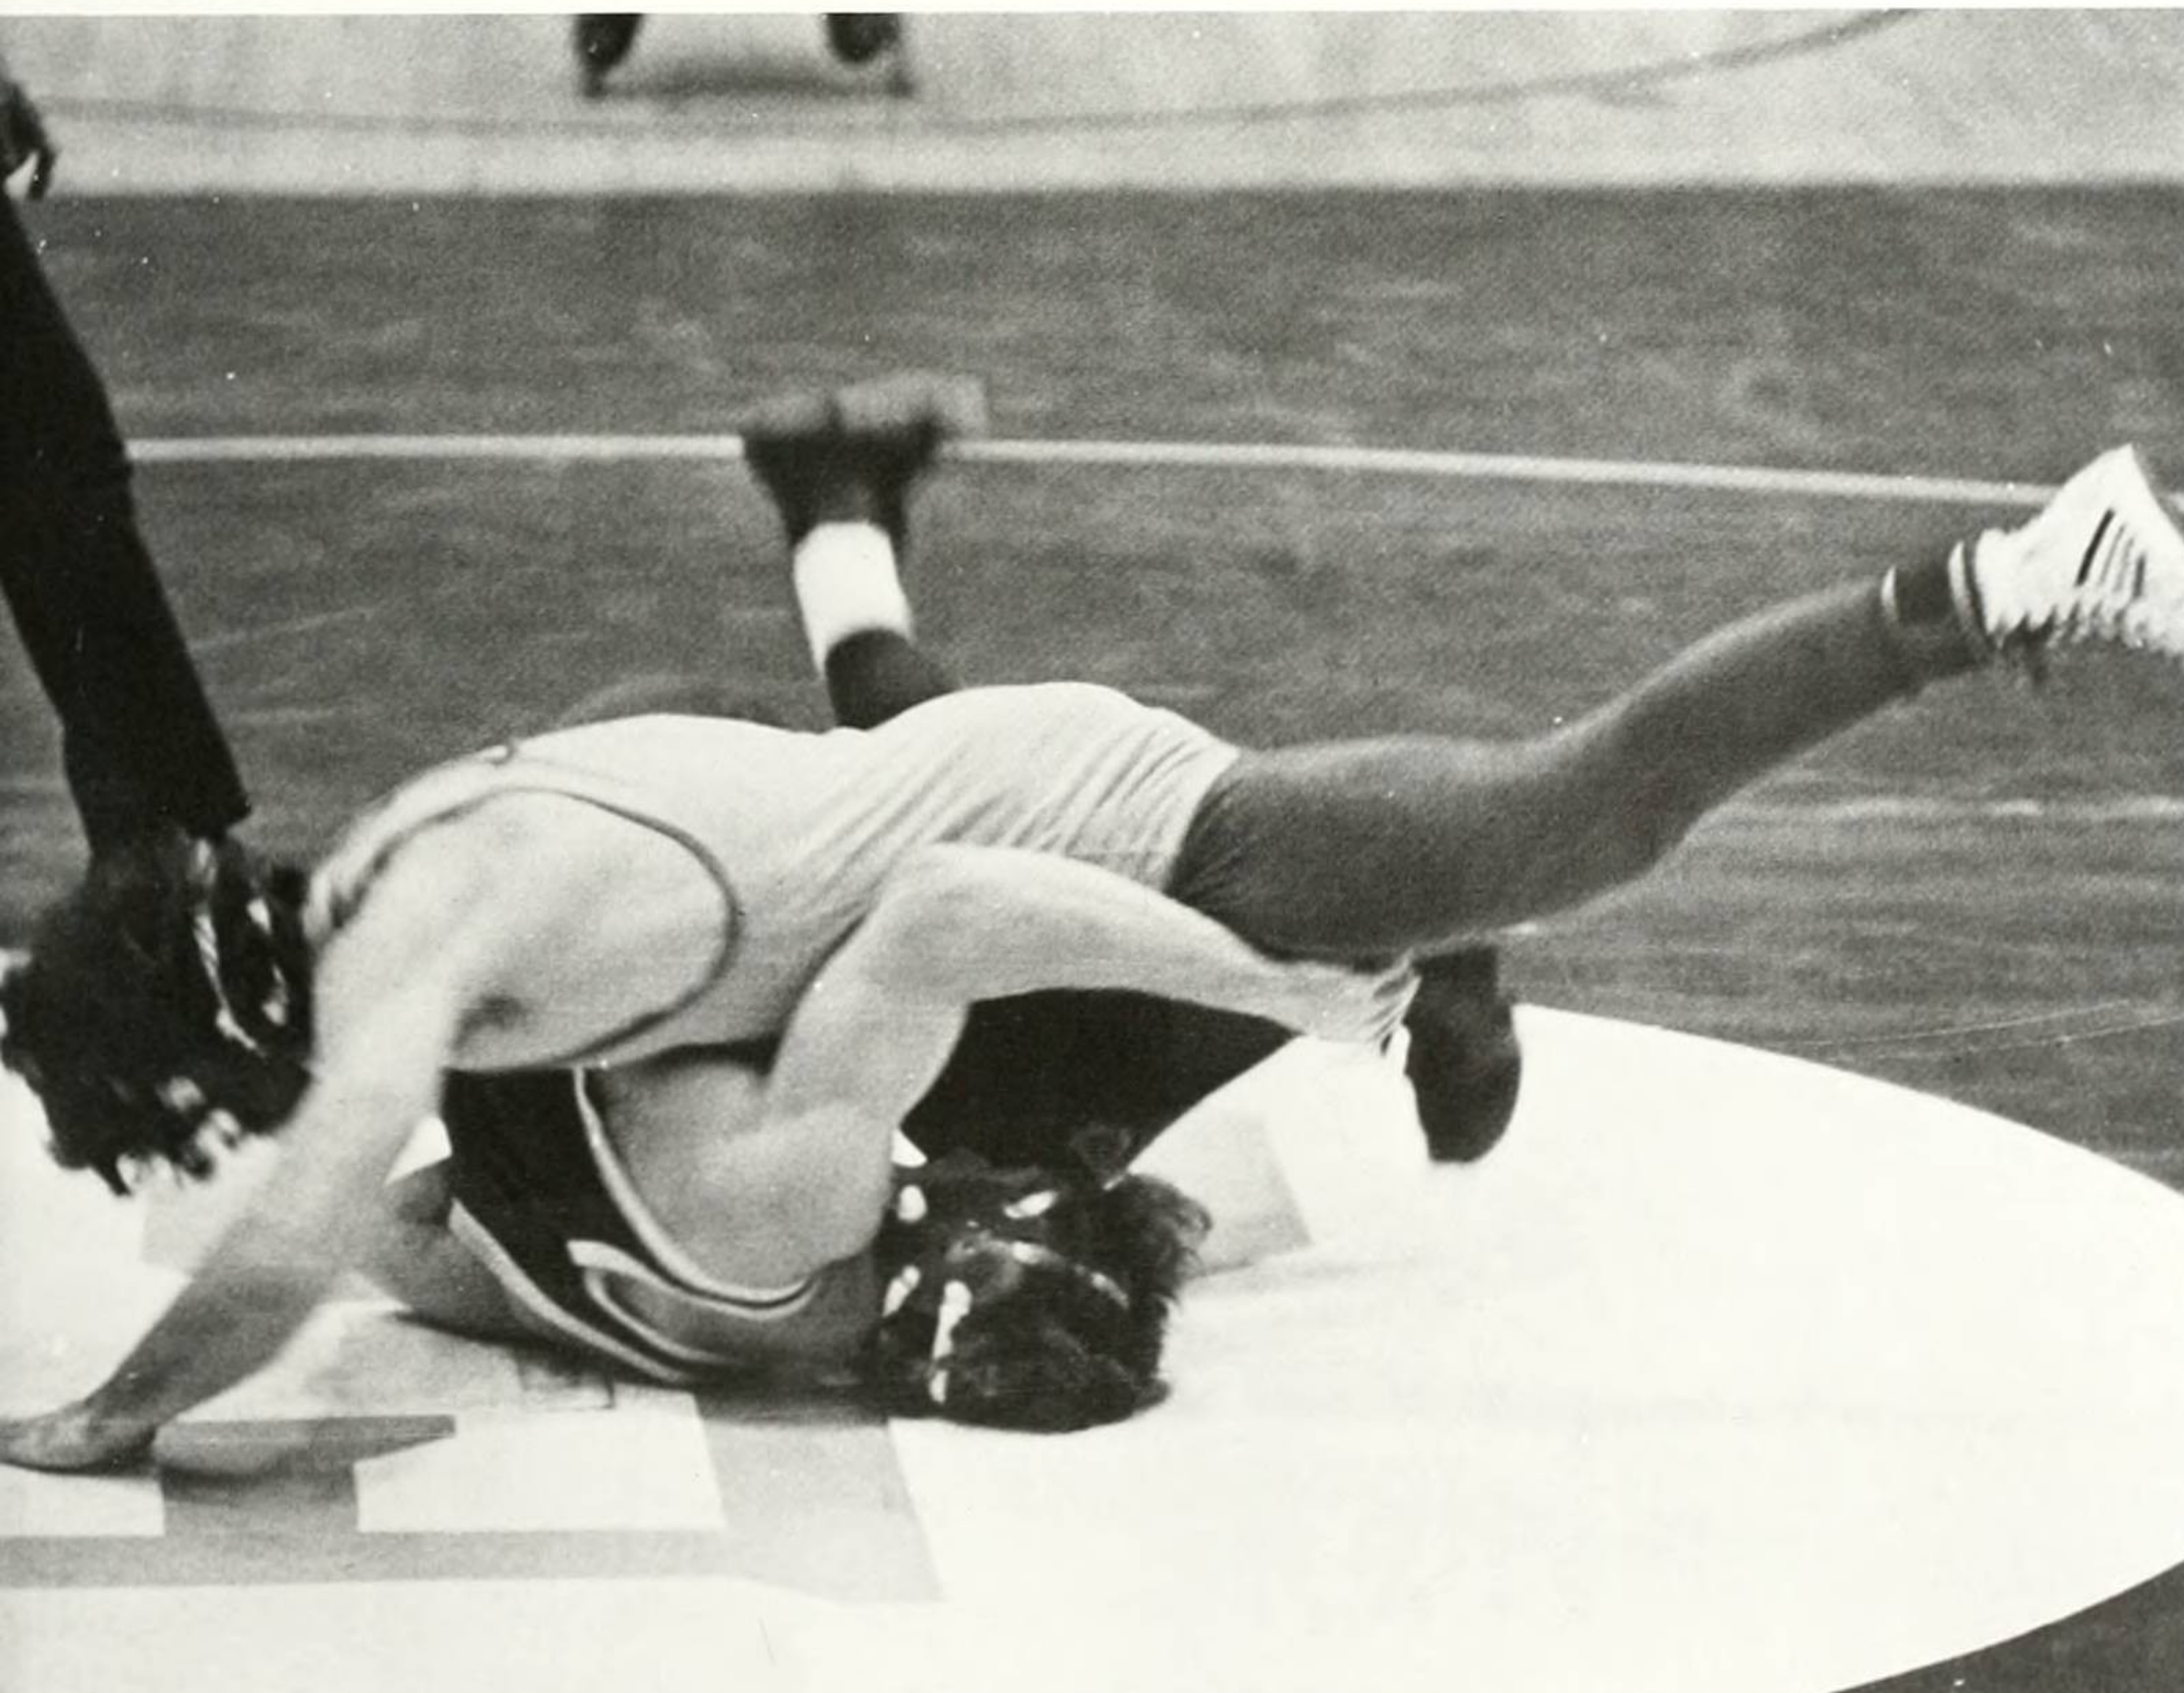

ECU wrestler Roger Ingalls begins the procedures for the take down.

Bruce Hall tries for the important pin to give his team three points to win the match.

m McCloe applies a spread eagle in hope of felling his opponent for the pin.

countering gamby roll is applied by wrestler Dan Monroe on his opponent to position him down.