The wrestling team at Clarence this year showed some improvement over last year's and the strength now lies in the underclassmen who have one or more years of experience behind them. The "A" team faced very tough competition and rarely overcame their opponents. Some of their winning matmen were Randy Muchow, hampered by a shoulder sprain mid-season, Dan Boody, Keith Campbell, Tim Conmy, and Dave Brunner. The "B" team, however, proved itself victorious over many others in their division. Paul Clarke, Roger Kolberg, and Dale Hartwig scored many wins for Clarence.

Wrestling is a relatively new sport at Clarence and was dormant for a few years. Last year it was re-established and is beginning to gain a foothold. It will no doubt prove more successful in coming years.
