The Varsity Wrestling team completed their most successful year during the 1980-1981 season. Mr. Jerry Drayer coached the grapplers to a tie with Newfane for second place in the Niagara-Orleans League.

The Tigers won the nine team Batavia Tourney for the third consecutive year and their own Akron Tournament for the fourth straight year. Eight Tigers represented the N-O League at the Section Six State Qualifiers held at Sweet Home. They were as follows: Don Smith at 94 lbs.; Rusty Bower at 122 lbs.; and Charlie Kron at 129 lbs. Also there were Steve Drayer, who got second place at 158 lbs., and Pete Snyder, Todd Covell, Dan Tordy, and Joe Smith, all third place finishers in the 115, 141, 148, and 170 pound weight classes, respectively. Charlie Kron took second place in Section Six, at 129 lbs.

The six departing seniors will leave a big gap to fill. The shoes of Todd Covell, Steve Drayer, Charlie Kron, Earl Miller, Pete Snyder, and Tony Vugts will be hard to fill.
