

ER mat strength's in the middle

Chris Bourne and Ron Ricotta are acting as captains of the East Rochester varsity wrestling team. Bourne will compete at either 119 or 126 pounds while Ricotta is set for 145 pounds.

Either McQuaid transfer John Smallridge or Jeff Kier will start for Coach Don Quinn at 98 pounds with Mark Morabito at 105, Charlie Prong or Joe Marcoccia at 112, and Tom Rosafi, John Gueli or Bourne at 119. It will be Rosati or Bourne at 126.

Don Quinn is at 132 with bob Steinruck or John Antonelli at 138, John Barber or Ricotta at 145 and Skip Farchione at 155.

Rounding out the Bomber line-up are Andy Brien or Tim Saunders at 167, Mark Nacarrella at 177 and Mark Kreyer at 215.

Coach Quinn, asked where his team's strength is, replied, "I guess in the middle of the line-up, from 112 through 155, guys that have been around."

Questioned as to toughest opponents in the Monroe County Eastern Division, the ER mentor said, "I look for a lot of trouble from Fairport, Rush and Eastridge. Those should be the three powers on our side."
