

Wilson and Janiak Advance in NCAAs

PRINCETON, N.J.—Syracuse University's Ken Wilson and John Janiak each advanced to the quarter-finals with a pair of victories but Tim Jenks went down to defeat at the 45th annual NCAA wrestling championships Thursday night.

Wilson, a Jordan-Elbridge High grad wrestling at 150 pounds, decisioned Steve Whedbee of California, 11-5 in a Thursday afternoon match and also defeated Randy Watson of Boise State, 6-2, in a Thursday night match.

Janiak, a North Syracuse grad in the 158-pound class, was even more impressive. After a 7-2 afternoon decision over Kevin Kramer of Oregon, Wilson came back in the evening session to crush Mark Evenhus of Oregon State, 18-2.

Jenks, a 12-5 winner over Wyoming's Paul Reed in an afternoon match, lost a 8-1 decision to Ron Ray of powerful Oklahoma State and was eliminated from championship competition in the 167-pound class. Jenks could qualify for the wrestlebacks and a possible third-place finish if Ray wins his next match.

Wilson and Janiak begin quarterfinal action Friday afternoon. The semifinals are Friday evening and the finals are scheduled for Saturday evening.
