YALE MATMEN TAKE HONORS

First in Wrestling
Meet at Cambridge.

Harvard Finishes Fourth in the College Tournament.

Baldrige and Loo the Star
Performers.

The Yale wrestling team was declared a winner in the first New England Intercollegiate meet, held in the Hemenway Gym of Harvard College, at Cambridge yesterday. The preliminaries and the semifinals were held in the afternoon and the finals last night.

This is the first meet of the New England Intercollegiate Association and it was open to all the colleges of New England. Harvard was given the honor of conducting the first meet because it was thought that Cambridge would afford a fair criterion of the popularity of the sport.

Judging from the fine crowds that attended the meet, the affair will be from now on an annual event among the New England colleges.

Although the wrestling in the afternoon was good, it was reserved for the evening to hand in the real thrills. The wrestling in the finals was fast and furious all the way.

The two feature performers of the evening were Capt Loo of Tech and Capt Baldrige of Yale. Loo held up the reputation that he has gained for himself around Boston wrestling circles by defeating all his opponents in handy style and winning the decision in his class. Baldrige, the genial captain of Yale, electrified the spectators many times with his agility and speed. Baldrige, by his two wins in this meet hopes to round out his two years as a college wrestler without having a defeat chalked up to him. The summary:

NAVY WRESTLERS WIN.

But the Academy Loses in Gymnastics, Swimming and Fencing by One Point in Each.

ANNAPOLIS, Md, March 4—The Naval Academy lost three of four athletic contests here this afternoon by a single point each. In the triangular gymnastic match, Princeton won by 21 to 20 for Navy and 13 for University of Pennsylvania. It was the first defeat for a Naval Academy gym team in seven years. The swimming match went to Princeton by 26 to 25, and the New York Fencing Club won the match with foils by 5 to 4.

Navy wrestlers, however, took every bout from Princeton, winning three of the bouts on clean falls. Capt Frantz was the only Princetonian to bring his opponent to his knees, and that for only a brief period.
