

Wrestling Practice—A little to the right . . . Ah!

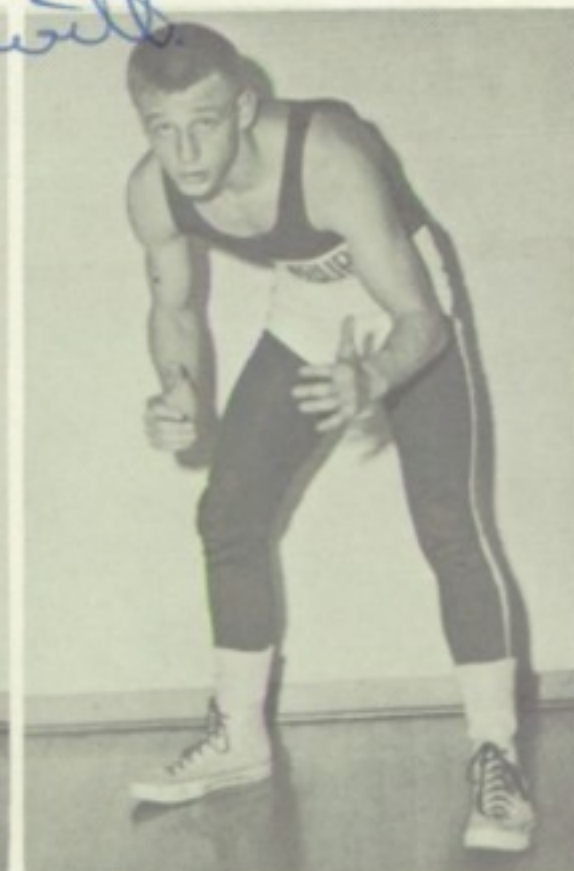

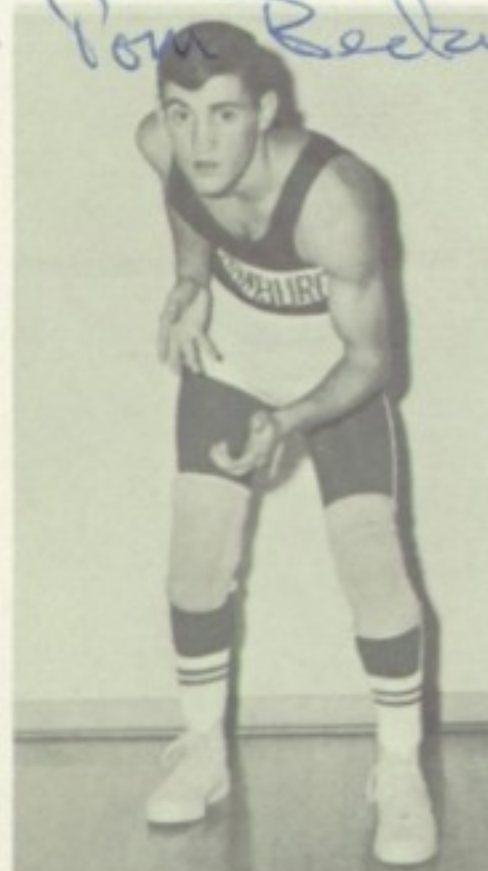

Under Coach William Brand and Captain Robert McMurray, the swimming team set many school and pool records. Although this year's losses exceeded wins, next year promises to be better. Robert McMurray, senior, paced the team, but underclassmen Daniel Newberry, Christopher Hart, James Meighan, William Southwell, and Robert Wilson were close behind. Divers Leroy Fiedler and Douglas Lewis made fine progress. Mr. Walter Anderson, a new coach, led the J.V. to a winning season.

This year's wrestling squad, under the capable guidance of Coaches Richard Hover and William Utter, triumphed over many tough opponents, bettering by far their previous season's record. Co-captains James Alexander and William Blaufuss contributed much toward making this a highly successful season for the Hamburg matmen. Our school is equally proud of the scoring record of the Varsity team and the "B" squad grapplers and of their record of consistent sportsmanship and fair play.
