Chi Azodo gracefully pins his opponent as Disco Ref looks on

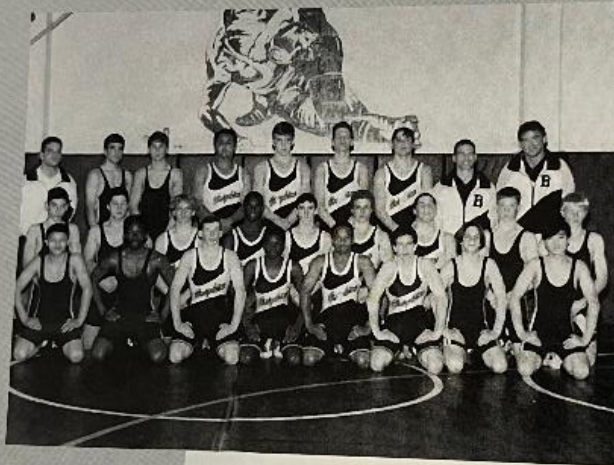

Soon you'll happen on a door leading to "The Pit," but brace yourself before entering. From underneath the door seeps the sounds and smell of sheer hard teamwork. In the end, those a.m. workouts, and all day long practices pay off. The Brighton Matmen wrestled to another great finish this year in the Eastern Division. They finished undefeated in the league and went on to place high in the sectional standings. Junior Nick Zito almost made it to the state tourney, the first wrestler in years, losing supersectionals in a double OT.

Nick Zito captures a high-powered being one senior.

Tim Aslin works hard to get off the bottom with his arm in a near bar arm.

"Perfect Player" Wayne Wight wrestles for arm control to get a headlock.
