Led by captains Mervin Lehman, Darrold Brownell and Jeff Hyslip, this year's wrestling team completed the season with a respectable record of 11-3. The team competed in four regular season tournaments and had several finalists in each.

They started off the season by traveling to Batavia for a weekend training clinic. The Waterloo tournament, on the schedule for the first time this year, presented stiffer competition than expected. Wellsville came away with three champions: Hyslip, Lehman and Kim Doane. However, the overall team effort was not as good as hoped for. Rounding out the tournament schedule were the Canoe Landing Tournament in Hammondsport, the Annual Olean JC's Tournament and the Falconer Invitational. Representing Wellsville as semi-finalists in the state qualifying tournament at Fairport were Hyslip, Brownell and Doane. Brownell captured Section V champion title, a task Wellsville hasn't been honored with for three years.
