

Wrestling

THE 1953-54 wrestlers began in a blaze of glory and continued in the same fine glow of success, ending in second place in Sec. VI Championship. Individual winner in the same Sec. VI Championships was Ken Meissner. Mike Gessford with 15 wins and Ray Davies with 13 pins and 2 decisions, not only were Championship winners, but also had an undefeated record for the season. Other winners in the Sec. VI Championship were D. Duebel and F. Maciejewski, second place; T. Procknal, T. Bihr, D. Kohler, third place; Ed Murray, fourth place. What a spectacular record Coach Robinson's wrestling team piled up!

A glance at the scores below will convince you that we are justly proud of such fine wrestlers who earned their letters this year: D. Duebel, Capt.; T. Procknal, R. Belcher, T. Bihr, K. Meissner, A. Tara, M. Gessford, E. Murray, F. Maciejewski, D. Kohler, R. Davies, E. Grysekowial and T. Bedore. Rightly pleased are we with squad men: L. Kellogg, E. Murray, J. Tara, P. Anna, P. Beisinger, E. Anna. A good job was done by their manager, R. Helmbreck.
