

Neumann's Paul Rosche pins opponent.

John Stetter rides opponent.

Rick O'Brien starts match, as he looks for an opening.

Gary Neiderpruem takes commanding position.

Wrestlers Tie For Title

Bishop Neumann's wrestling team, led throughout the season by five undefeated wrestlers, finished in a tie with Notre Dame, as both squads posted 9-1 records. Neumann then placed third in the All-Catholic tournament, four points behind the winning team. Five Neumann wrestlers took home All-Catholic honors, 103 Gary Neiderpruem, 115 Chris Kennedy, 136 Bill Weber, 141 Dave Borchard, and 157 Gerry Cusimano, who was also named the "Outstanding Wrestler."

Row 1: J. Sullivan, M. Johnston, C. Kowsinski, D. Schulenberg, G. Neiderpruem. Row 2: B. Bachman, G. Etlinger, B. Kalina, M. Visciano, G. Connor, R. Fritz, A. Brown, R. Jette, B. Weber, G. Cusimano, J. Morris, J. Hite, J. Evans. Row 3: Mr. Mendelare, B. Wicks, R. Kaus, J. O'Brien, M. Cusimano, P. Fopeano, G. Wyman, P. Rosche, J. Stetter, D. Borchard, D. Schmidt, R. O'Brien, D. Ragan, T. Spoth, Coach Joe Piscopo.