J.V. Wrestling

Row 1: Chris Vaccaro, Adam Lipa, John Condello, Sam Lombardo III. Row 2: Chris Matteson, Joel Heifferon, Dave Bell, Jason Edwards, Brian Crosby, Mark Agnello.

The 1987-88 season was the beginning of a comeback for the wrestling team as it went from one of the lowest positions in the league to second place on the varsity level. Part of the change was due to the excellent leadership of head coach Brian Chadwick, along with Mr. Jim Burns, trainer. The help of returning students was also a factor; Vinnie Aceto, Eddie DeJesus, Chris Trovato and Mike Fusilli, to name a few.

The team had several great performances from freshmen this year. Todd Zimmerman was City-Catholic Champion this year, Joe Digregorio finished second at the C-C, Irondequoit and Vestal tournaments. Also, John Condello finished fourth at the Churchville-Chili tournament and second at the C-C tournament. In addition, Chris Vaccaro, Sam Lombardo, Adam Lipa, Chris Matteson, Brian Crosby, and Mark Agnello all brought in wins.

The sophomores made vast improvements in performance. Jerry Lopez was the Churchville-Chili tournament Champion. Dave Bill was the Churchville-Chili heavy-weight Champion. Both John Hutchinson and Chris Cox also added a lot to team performance.

The juniors helped build a strong team, with Thad Tellier finishing second at Churchville-Chili, Chris Williams aiding the upset of Cardinal Mooney, and Mike Gibson winning second place at the C-C tournament. Carl Provenzano and Jeff Lynch also brought in good showings.

The best showings were from seniors. Kyle Gross was able to bring in points despite an injury and Rich Lopez was able to bring in several wins as well. Richard Bell, captain of the team, was C-C Champion, while Carlos Shippy placed in every tournament attended.

This has been a real year of growth, with the varsity team second in the league and JV finishing second at the Churchville-Chili tournament, a great achievement for a very young team, insuring the tradition of excellence.
