Although Mr. Hancock's wrestling team had a disappointing season, a number of grapplers displayed outstanding ability. Willie Turner went undefeated in the 122 pound weight division. John Spencer lost a close decision for a 7-1 record in the 133 pound class. Mel Washington, named the Most Valuable Player, went undefeated in the 180 pound class and went on to win the Section V crown. A noteworthy performance was also turned in by Sophomore Gary Jefferson.

Co-captain John Spencer works for position with his opponent from East.

In gaining another five points for Monroe, co-captain Mel Washington sets his man up for a pin.
