Undefeated Wrestlers Clinch Sectional Championship

Fisher and Hasseler Lead Reds by Winning Sectional Wrestling Weight Divisions.

The 1993 Boys Varsity Wrestling team was coached by Mr. Fisher and assisted by Mr. Avery and Mr. Schojan. The 1993 wrestling season was a season of "incredible" result and rewards. This year's wrestling season conquered everything in its way to success. The team devoured opponents and achieved the following outstanding marks: a 14 - 0 Dual Meet Record, 4th straight 1st place team finish at the Genesee Valley Tournament (NYS largest tournament), 1st place team finish in the Newark Tournament, the Finger Lakes East League Champions, and the Section Five - Class B Championship title.

The team had great team efforts by all members of the wrestling team to give them their "incredible" season of glory. Such team members include those receiving 1st Team All-League honors: Jason Celestino, Terry Hasseler, and Jack Fisher (3rd time).

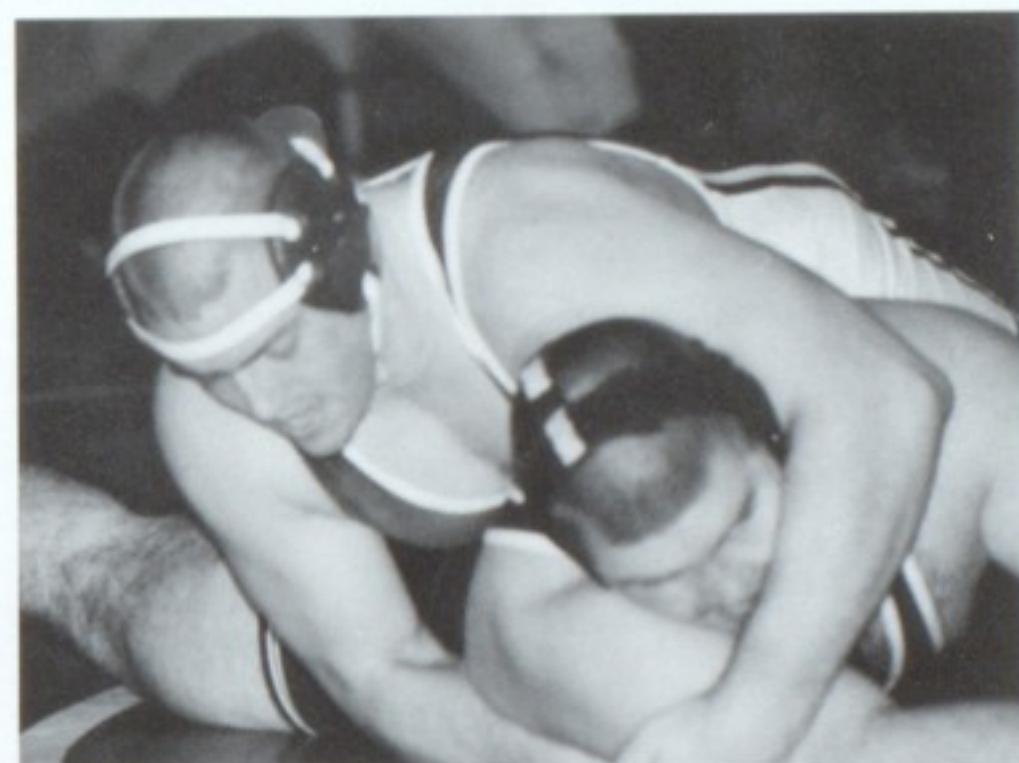

Sophomore Terry Hasseler had outstanding season which was capped off with his fantastic Section Five - Class B Championship title in the 112 pound weight class.

Senior Wrestler Jack Fisher Jr. led the Reds to their Sectional title by capping off his career at NHS. His achievements are no laughing matter. Below is a list of Jack's outstanding career at NHS:
 1993 Record: 32 - 2, 6 x Tournament Champion, Career Record: 120 wins - 10 loss, School Record for the Most Tournament victories at 17, 3 x Webster Tourn. Champion, 3 x Genesee Tourn. Champion, 4 x Watkins Tourn. Champion, 4 x Newark Tourn. Champion, 2 x Sectional Champion, 2 x Super Sectional State Qualifier Champion, 2 x State Finalist, and 2 x time Most Outstanding Wrestler award at Newark Tournament.

The Reds sent 14 wrestlers to the Section Five - Class B championships. The Reds sent ten wrestlers went to the Super Sectional State Qualifiers Championships: Jason Celestino (91 lb), Jason Cruz (98 lb), Terry Hasseler (105 lb), Sixto Matta (112 lb), Tim Dallos (138 lb), Josh VanLare (155 lb), Jack Farnsworth (167 lb), Gerry Santell (177 lb), Kieth Thomas (215 lb), and Jack Fisher (250 lb). Jack Fisher finished 1st at the Super sectional Qualifier and went onto the State Finals Championships

The Reds wrestling undefeated season and Sectional Champions title are the result of the teams dedication, determination, motivation of each other, and their continued team goal to strive to do their very best. Congratulations has to also go out to the excellent coaching and time given to the wrestlers from their coach, Mr. Jack Fisher. Congratulations on your season of "incredible" proportions and best of luck next year to continue.
