

S P O R T S

Bob Rust Wins On 18th Birthday

Dodgers, Koufax and Drysdale Are 'Further Apart Than Ever'

Bob Rust celebrated his 18th birthday by earning a spot on the Section VI wrestling team which will compete in the state sectionals Saturday in Huntington Station, Long Island.

The Kenmore East wrestler was the lone intrasectional winner from the Tri-Cities, although the Niagara Frontier League is well represented.

Rust decisioned John Hey of Starpoint, 8-2, in the 168 class Saturday at Erie County Technical Institute.

Rust's trip to Huntington Station will be something of a homecoming. He attending the host school for the sectionals — Walt Whitman — before transferring to Kenmore East two years ago.

Niagara - Wheatfield won four berths in Saturday's finals. Bob

Stokes won the 106 class and his brother, Bill, took the 123 division.

N-W's Rich Carlson captured the 115 and John Bradt was the winner in heavyweight. Greg St. Onge of Niagara Falls won the 98 class.

The other winners were Dan Walgate of Grand Island in unlimited, Mike Crandall of Medina in 157, Mike Abt of Iroquois in 183, Frank Gemza of Sweet Home in 130, Burt Nagel of Cattaraugus in 136, Tom Carlson of Silver Creek in 141 and Tom Buntich of Frontier in 148.

Glenn Gentzke of Tonawanda and Rick Rose of East wrestled in the finals. But Gentzke lost in the 130 to Gemza, 11-9, and Rose was pinned in unlimited by Walgate in 2:58.

The question baseball fans pressured into meeting their club could finish seventh or hospital case when he under-asked all last season might he demands." eighth in the American League, went an emergency appendecto-