HOW TO WATCH WRESTLING

WHATS HAPPENING

FIRST: BOTH wrestlers come forward to the center of the mat and shake hands.

NEXT: The referee blows his whistle and signals "wrestle".

NOW: Each wrestler is trying to get his opponent off of his feet and wind up on top of or behind him in control. This is a "TAKEDOWN"

POINTS: The first points are likely to be given for a takedowns,

THEN: The defensive (bottom man) wrestler is trying to escape (get away) or reverse his position to get on top or behind his opponent. The offensive (usually the top man) wrestler is trying to get a hold with which he can keep his opponents shoulders on the mat for two seconds. A PIN.

Each match has three periods, which are two minutes long.

FIRST PERIOD: Starts from the standing position

SECOND PERIOD: Starts from the referees position. One wrestler in the top position and the other wrestler in the down position.

THIRD PERIOD: Starts with the position at the start of the 2nd. period reveresed.

ANYTIME A PIN OCCURS - THE MATCH IS ENDED

INDIVIDUAL SCORING

Takedown	- 2pts.
Escape	-1 pt.
Reversal	- 2pts.
Near Fall	- 2pts. or 3pts.
Penalties	- 1pt for first and second offense 2pts. for third offense

"Superman" Invades War Memorial

By Neil Kerr
Syracuse Post-Standard

To most New Yorkers in the Syracuse War Memorial this weekend, it will come as a shock if East Rochester's muscular John Zito somehow fails to capture the 167-pound Intersectional crown, because he's in a class by himself.

East Rochester coach Don Quinn agrees.

"He's a tough kid," says Quinn. "The only thing you worry about with a boy like him is some fluke accident. But he really shouldn't get beat. The closest match he's had this year was a 10-2 win. Earlier in the winter, John hadn't allowed a point, and when a couple kids finally scored on him, they received standing ovations."

One recent victim was Hilton High's tough Terry Brown, who took a 21-3 record into his showdown with Zito. But Zito, who helped East Rochester's unbeaten football team (10-0) to the state championship this past fall, won by a score of 13-1. "He countered everything I hit him with," said Brown with an awe-inspired smile. "The only way he's going to lose is if somebody catches him on an off-day."

Wrestling fans will recall that Zito last was beaten right here in the War Memorial one year ago in the state 167-pound title match by Ed Banach of Port Jervis, 10-5. "I made one mistake near the end of that match," recalls Zito. "I couldn't see the overhead scoreboard and I thought time was running out so I went for broke. He (Banach) turned it into a 5-point move. It turned out there were still 30 seconds left."

So Zito had to settle for second place, but with Banach now at the University of Iowa, it appears that no one will prevent Zito from improving upon last year's finish. "Nothing he does this year will surprise me," says Irondequoit coach Art Connorton. "I'm just surprised no one offered him that part of Superman in that new movie."

Zito last year went 33-1 and last summer won a gold medal at the Empire Games competition here in Syracuse. His record stood at 28-0 prior to last weekend's Section Five Tournament, where he was expected to add four more victories to a growing collection.

Zito also excelled at defensive end, earning First Team, All-State laurels for the Bomber football squad, also coached by Quinn. But he will concentrate on wrestling in college, probably forsaking the gridiron sport completely. "John has very high goals," said Quinn last week. "He wants to win an NCAA title and, someday, an Olympic title also. So he wants to attend a college with a strong wrestling program. All the big schools have shown an interest. College scouts have been at most of our matches this winter."

Zito has already been approached by major schools such as Wisconsin, Oklahoma, North Carolina, Arizona, Oklakhoma State, Syracuse, Georgia, and Lehigh. That list figures to grow stronger after this tournament concludes.

"I want a school with a good wrestling program, but my education will come first," says Zito, a 90-student and a member of the National Honor Society. "I wouldn't mind warm weather either."

But first, "Superman" needs to conclude a scintillating scholastic career by winning a New York State Intersectional crown here Saturday night. According to everyone who has seen the East Rochester ace in action this winter, that title is inevitable.

ANY MAT CAN BE RECONDITIONED — LET US DO YOURS
WHY RECONDITION? Because your OLD mat will be NEW and safer.
Free estimates on request

We will caulk all areas that need caulking, glue bad seams or tears, trim edges, then apply the finest vinyl chloride paint available. This vinyl chloride paint is extremely tough and durable. A minimum of four heavy coats are always applied to your mat.
