

Canandaigua Tops Bombers

Even a year ago when the match was scheduled, Coach Don Quinn was almost sure his Bomber wrestling team couldn't beat Canandaigua. And it all came to pass last Tuesday night when Eat Rochester High School's team lost to the No. 2 New York State-ranked Canandaiguans, 38-11.

But the loss was not without a bit of glory for the locals. It came in the 132 pound match between ER's Romeo Battazzi and the Can's Matt King.

Earlier in the season, King did a 8-2 job on Battazzi. This time, the match ended 0-0.

King represented Section 5 in the state tourney last season and finished fourth.

Battazzi wants to make the trip to the states on March 7 and 8.

ER's top triumph actually was Curtis Doreen's 13-2 decision over Mark Henderson in the 155 class. It put 4 points in the Bomber scorecard. One other ER grappler fashioned a tie that was good for two counters.

Scott McIntosh and rival Don Jones battled to a 7-7 stalemate in the 112 division.

Mike Kuhn added to his glittering 126 pound record with a tough 2-1 decision over Steve Finnick.

Unable to post wins against Canandaigua's strong lineup were: Tim Quinn (98) lost by a 4-2 decision to Joe Ricciotti; Tom Pagano (105) to Dan Scheele, 6-3; Frank Argento (119) to Ron Jones, 3-2; Joe Walczyk (138) to Morris White, 12-1; Craig Venette (145) to Mike Reho 6-1; Dan Capiello (167) to Bill Hadsell by a pin in 1:18; Tony Rossi (177) by a pin in 3:17 to "Bill" Condon and Joe Santucci (215) by a pin to Joe Kuras in 55 seconds.
