Neumann Matmen Capture All-Catholic Championship

Neumann High sent eight representatives into the title round and finished with three champions Saturday en route to winning the fifth annual All-Catholic wrestling tournament at O'Hara.

The Dragons collected 99 points to gain their first crown. Notre Dame was second with 87. DeSales, the dual meet champion with a 13-1 mark, was third with 77, followed by Canisius 56, O'Hara 29, Turner 28, St. Mary's, Lanc. 26 and Dougherty 9.

DeSales' 141-pound champion, Guy Holler, pinned his three opponents to gain the most valuable wrestler award.

ND Has Three Winners

Neumann's champions were Bill Allaire (115), Ron Heim (180) and Mark Johnson (unlimited). Notre Dame had a winning trio in Dom Tiberio 101), Jim Monachino (170), and Dennis O'Connor (215). Jim Giles (122) and Kurt Zunner 135) joined Holler to give DeSales three titlists.

Canisius had a pair of champions in Tom Curtain (108) and Mike Jay (129). Turner's Larry Littlejohn, a two-time loser to Joe Jay of Canisius during the dual meet season, handed Jay his first loss of the season on an 8-7 decision to win at 148. O'Hare's lone champion was Tim Philbin at 158.
