Section 6 Wrestling

Falconer, Panama, Maple Grove Win Titles

Golden Falcs Total 186; Albion Second

By DENT THORPE

FALCONER — Falconer Central School's 145-pounder, Mike Garvey, was named the outstanding wrestler in the Section 6, Division 6 Tournament at Falconer Saturday.

Garvey was one of three champions crowned for coach Bill Davenport's titleholders for the second straight year.

Falconer totaled 186 points, Albion 154½, Newfane 126, Medina 108, Salamanca 39, Gowanda 31½, Wilson 27, and Royalton-Hartland 25 in the eight-team meet.

Albion had the most winners, four, while Newfane and Medina joined Falconer with three and Gowanda had one.

Bob Betts at 112 and Dan Thomas at 155 were the other Golden Falcon grapplers taking first place.

Coach Davenport had remarked last week: "We don't have that many outstanding wrestlers but should have enough balance, with several boys placing to win the crown."

The Davenport analysis was on the money. Falconer had nine in the championships and three in the consolations.

Garvey, prior to making the finals, pinned Todd Bullers of Salamanca in 1:34 and decisioned Chris Aikins of Newfane, 7-1.

In the title match with Carl Chappius of Albion, the three-time sectional winner scored two takedowns in the first period, a near fall in the second period and a reversal in the final period before giving up an escape just before the final buzzer in the 9-1 decision.

Betts had three pins at 112. In his first event he stopped Len Starr of Albion in 5:09, in the second finished Jeff Winans of Medina in 2:58 and in the title bout after scoring a takedown in the first period for a 2-0 lead, went after Randy Dry of Salamanca and used a cradle for the win at 3:32.

Thomas had a tough customer to contend with in the 155 championship engagement. After a scoreless first period he recorded an escape in the second period and a takedown in the third for a hard-fought 3-0 decision.

A second period escape was fatal to Dave Carlson in the 98 finals. Tom Houghtling of Newfane gained a 1-0 decision.

Jeff Sopak gave up an escape in the second period to Kurt Rosentreter of Medina and a near fall at the final buzzer for a 4-0 title loss at 119.

The 126 championship bout was a high-scoring affair with Steve Moore losing, 12-8, to Mike Stresberger of Albion. Two violations and a mistake for a near fall proved costly.

Two takedowns and two reversals spelled the difference in the 132 final match with Gary Webber of Newfane outpointing Dick Betts of Falconer, 8-6. Webber took an early lead and when Betts closed the gap came on strong for points.

Brian Eccles earned the first and last points on escapes in the 167 clash but Gary Cooper in between had a takedwon, penalty point, takedown and an escape for a 6-2 decision.

Action in the 177 bout found Dave Walker only getting a first period escape after taken down by Bill Webster of Albion. Webster had an escape and takedown in the third period for a 5-1 decision.

Prince Wins 100th Victory; Five Dragons Win Crowns

Maple Grove 167-pound standout Tim Prince recorded his 100th victory and his fourth sectional title Saturday on the home mats to lead the Dragons to the Section 6 Division 7 crown.

Coach Dick Errico's club charted 173 points, Portville 128, Silver Creek 106, Allegany 101½, Westfield 57, Cassadaga Valley 56½, Akron 56½, and Holland 40.

The Dragons had six wrestlers in the championship and five were victorious. Other winners were Scott Babbage at 91; Joe Santilli at 98; Cleat Caskey at 112; and Sam Becker at 126.

Bill Hoch lost to Portville standout Terry Miller in the 155 final.

According to spokesman Curt Micell, Maple Grove is the only team other than Portville to win the sectionals in the last 11 years. The Dragons previously won in 1973.

Babbage was seeded third at 91 and pinned the No. 1 seed, Tom Lawall of Holland in the championship event in 3:46.

Santilli at 98 recorded his 20th pin in 26 matches this year. In his first match Saturday he won 22-3 and in his second event pinned the No. 2 seed in the first round.

Caskey at 112 flattened his first opponent and outpointed his other two challengers for easy verdicts.

Becker also had smooth sailing on to victory. He won a 16-2 decision, scored a pin, and won the title match at 119 12-4, defeating his same opponent in the championship match of last year, only at 112.

Miller at 155, winning his third straight sectional title, had to extend himself before downing Hoch with four points in the final minute. Last year Miller was third in the state meet at 145.

Prince was named the outstanding wrestler for the second time in four years. Miller, who won the honor last year, didn't allow a point. He had a first period pin, 5-0 and 8-0 decisions. Prince was outstanding also in his sophomore year. Prince has a 100-5-1 high school record.

Tom Horsch of Westfield, the 105 king, won his second title in a row. He copped the crown at 91 last season.

It was Caskey's second win also. Two years ago he gained honors at 98 pounds.

Stan Jones of Allegany won the unlimited title for the second year in a row.

Triumph Is Panthers' First Preston Three Championsh

PANAMA — February 26, 1977 is going to go down as a very important date in the wrestling history of Panama Central School.

It was on Saturday night that the host Panthers captured their first Section 6 Division 8 title before a capacity crowd.

Cattaraugus came in with three straight crowns but were seventh in the eight-squad field with 70 points.

Meanwhile, Coach Larry Harrington's club was comfortably ahead with 136½ points compared to Franklinville with 89 and Randolph 88½.

Led by now three-time titleholder Steve Preston, Panama accumulated just three championships but had very fine balance.

Preston raised his 138-pound record to 19-0 by easily disposing of Sherman's Tim Hopkins, 13-0, dropping the latter to 9-5.

Gene Stevens (167), increased his 167-pound book to 15-5 by flattening Franklinville's Jay Gunner in 5:33. This was a remarkable victory for Stevens because he was behind, 7-1, after the first period and 7-3 inside the final minute. Gunner falls to 11-8-1.

Phil Gibbs was the other Panama champ, knocking off Franklinville's 98-pound Rod Smith, 10-6, to run his record to 13-2-1 and plunging Smith to 17-3.

Craig Ackley of Frewsburg, who has lost this year only to Eisenhower's Scott Hurley, 4-1, in the Southern Tier Holiday Tournament, was selected the "Outstanding Wrestler" by virtue of his lop-sided triumphs at 119 pounds.

Ackley, now 17-1-1, belted Sherman's Tim Roberts, 18-1, in his first bout and then crushed Cattaraugus' Ray Brown, 10-0, for the championship.

Other repeaters, besides Preston and Ackley were: Pat Case of Ripley at 126 (13-4) and Rodd Spontaneo of Frewsburg at 155 (15-2).

Records of other kingpins are as follows: Mark Emke of Randolph at 91 (8-2-1), Tim Eddy of Ripley at 105 (15-5), Tim Brown of Pine Valley at 112 (12-4), Ken Towers of Randolph at 132 (9-4), Keith Miller of Cattaraugus at 145 (19-1), Ed Decker of Franklinville at 177 (13-7), Brad Willsie of Frewsburg at heavyw and Bill Nelson of Frewsburg a (6-8).

A family bout took place at 9 a semifinal exchange whe champ M. Emke pinned cou Emke of Pine Valley in 4:35 dolph winner was ahead, 10-0, fall.

Referee Bob Sisley hurt hi was forced to the sidelines for the evening. That meant that all the work.
