

Wrestlers From 15 Schools Share in Tourney Honors

Wrestlers from some 15 schools won honors in three Southern Tier tournaments on Saturday.

Steuben "B" titles were decided at Canisteo; Allegany titles at Andover and Class "AA" quarter-finals at Corning.

Johnny Gemmell was the only Hornell winner at Corning.

Host Canisteo paced the list of Steuben Class B wrestling champions with four at the tourney held Saturday.

Also gaining the right to meet the Allegany County B champions were three boys from Savona, two each from Campbell and Addison and one from Avoca. The bi-county event is slated for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Canisteo, with winners qualifying for the Section 5 semi finals Saturday at Victor.

The Canisteo quartet of winners included Stan Holmes, Tom Richardson, Steve Hollowell and Gary Knight. Hollowell won his match in overtime.

Dansville, Corning East and Corning West won three titles apiece.

Alfred-Almond qualified three boys in Allegany county.
