KNEELING: John Scott, Mike Green, Rob Starkweather, Steve Nally, John Cappelino. STANDING: Vince Baiamonte, Tim Sheg, George Moore, Paul Nesser, Tom Bayer, John McGuire, Lem Rodgers, Phil Lanzatella.

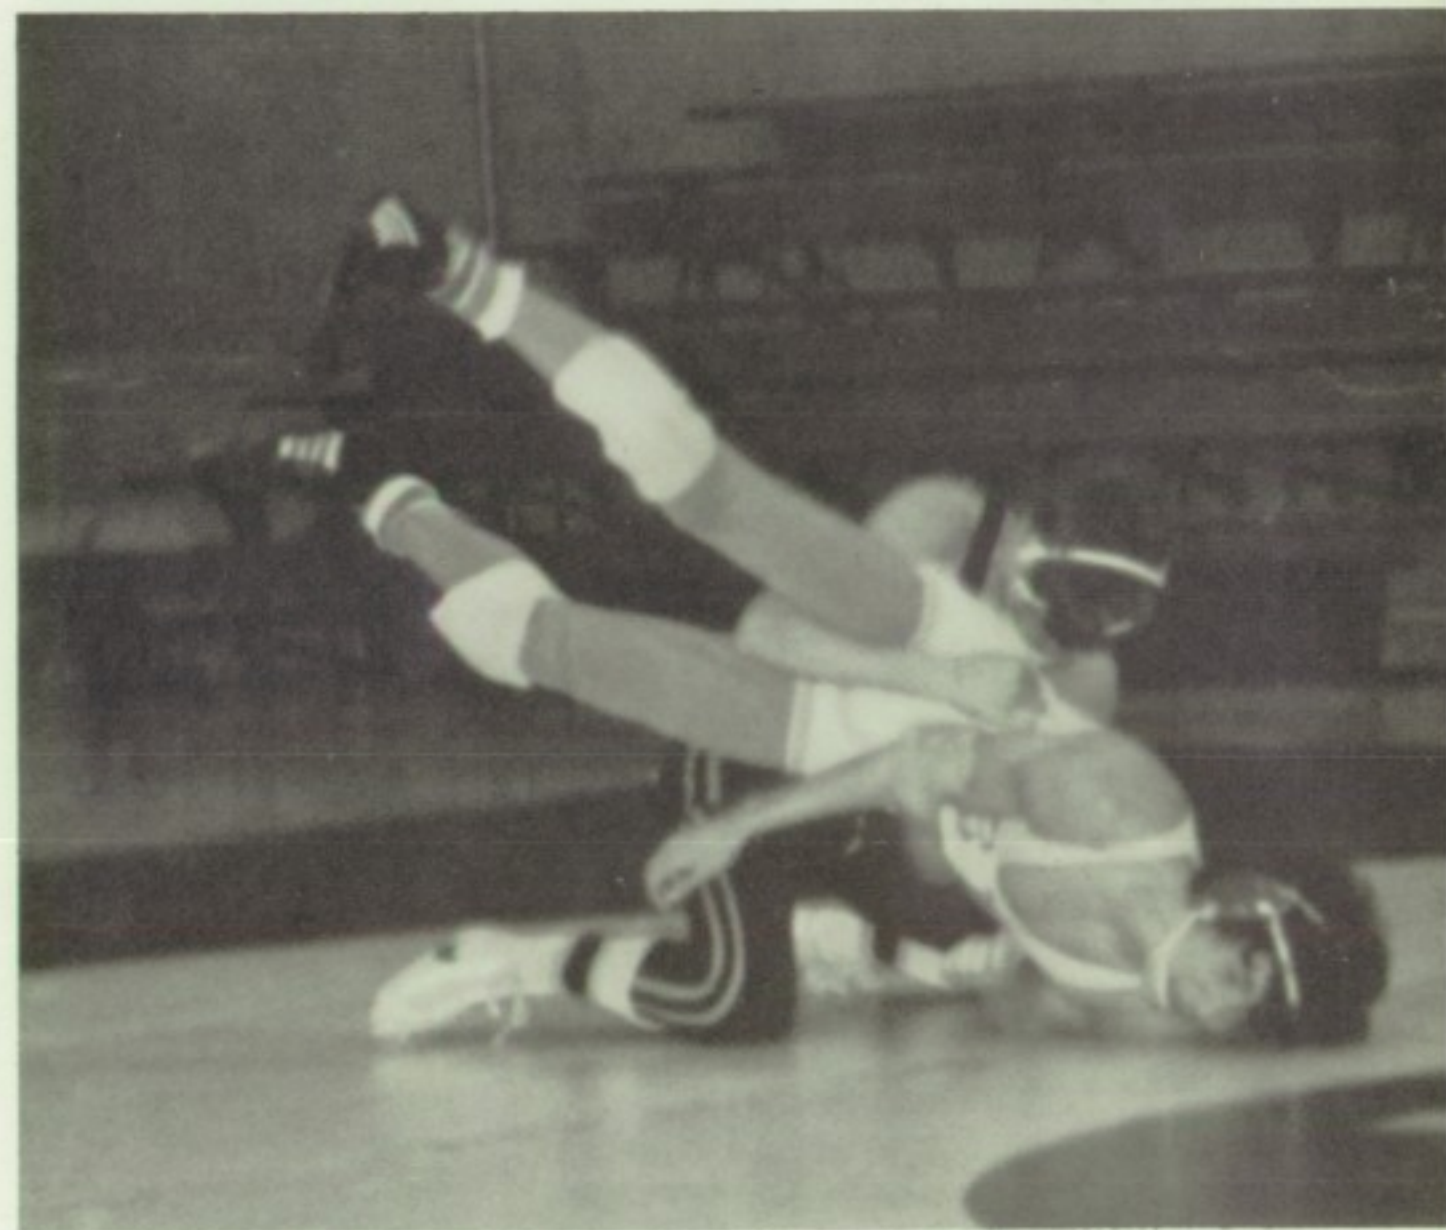

The Boogy Knights finished out their season at 11-2, tied for the League Championship. With those memorable wins over Spencerport, Brighton, and B.K. Out of the 9 entrants in the C.C. Tournament, 6 made it to the finals and 5 won them!

This was a season that saw; Rob Starkweather go undefeated in duels with everybody else close behind, many injuries with Mcgoo getting the "Red Cross" Award, Vince the original Masked Marvel, Greeny making his Varsity debut (but he still has ugly toes), Caps getting tough toward the end, Nals with his Lemonade jar, Lem with his :18 second match, George laying down in the lounge, Brickhouse Phil, Ginger Snapper, Oliver, 2 broken noses (but they can't compare with the Chief), A locked boiler room, Caught napping at East, Coming through in the C.C.'s, Sectional Bound, Competition on the Stat Sheets, T-Bone, "we don't want to sit down We want to get down . . . ", etc.

Caps, Nals, Starks, Greeny, Hawker, Pluck, Ness, T-Bone, Gro-Moore, McGoo, Majic, Marvel, Brickhouse and the rest of the Squad wish to thank Mr. Roselli and Mr. Jones for all the hours of teaching, for all of their faith, but mostly for the way they cared. We also wish to thank the mothers of the team for their love and patience. The seniors wish the best of luck to the underclassmen even though we know they won't need it. They are going to be the best no matter what their record is, because they are the Boogy Knights.

"Boogy Knights, There is no doubt, We are here to Party. Dance with the Boogy. For Boogy Knights are always the best in town."
