1994-95 JV & Varsity Wrestling

The '94-'95 grapplers enjoyed a great deal of success at both the team and individual level. The season was highlighted by a 3rd consecutive Genesee Region Division II Championship. The Tigers finished with a 9-4-1 overall and 6-2 league record.

Tom Russo became the 2nd LCS wrestler to ever win the prestigious Hilton Tournament and was named Most Outstanding Wrestler. Seth Rak and Tom both won G-R League championships and achieved All League status. Tom was also named the league's Most Valuable Wrestler. Coach Fisher was honored with the G-R Coach of the Year award.

Four LCS grapplers were named to the All Orleans County Team. Representing Lyndonville were Tom Russo, Tim Ridley, Brett Wilson, and Joe Arena. Seth Rak earned honorable mention in the 215 pound class.

In Section V competition Tom Russo claimed a second consecutive Class D championship and went on to win the Section V State Qualifier Tournament. Tom became LCS's second wrestler to ever compete in the New York State Championships in Syracuse. Tom placed 5th in "the States", the first wrestler in Lyndonville history to do so!
