Wrestling

Encouraged and with high hopes for a successful season, this young and inexperienced squad underwent a grueling training schedule. These efforts were rewarded by an overwhelming first match win. The Oatkan matmen accumulated several disappointing defeats before picking up their second win.

For their individual efforts, Charles O'Geen, remaining undefeated throughout the season, and Carmen Muoio, capturing the championship in his weight class at the Livingston County League Meet, were deserving of the special recognition they received.

Inspired by enthusiastic fans and co-captains Mike Perry and Charles O'Geen, the 1968-69 wrestling squad climaxed a rewarding season, leaving the men with valuable experience and greater enthusiasm for the sport.
