

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

This is one game they believe a student should start to learn young and keep right on practicing until he has it down pat. The boys have learned basketball tactics, sportsmanship, and teamwork and should make an excellent varsity team someday.

JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS

Pert, pretty, and peppy—these girls are gaining experience for the future. They help to add spirit to the seventh and eighth grade basketball games.

WRESTLING

Concentrating on "good sportsmanship," the wrestling team met many worthy opponents this year. With the experience gained in these matches, it is hoped that we will soon go on to meet the victories of coming years.
