Wrestlers Take Hold

Man, due to his natural instinct, has always had a desire for competition. Several young men in Lyons express that feeling in wrestling where their skills are pitted against those of others. Experiencing victory and defeat, these Lyons wrestlers learn not only respect for their teammates and themselves, but also the pride and dignity of manhood.

Under the guidance of Coach Aron and Coach Boice, the team worked to perfect their skills. Bob Tricarico and Don Mroczo excelled in the Christmas Tournaments and also added points to the total team effort.
