

Under the watchful eye of their experienced mentor, Mr. Shopes, the J.V. Basketball squad developed into a fine playing team. Loyal support by the Monroe fans the squad played a hard fought season. Prospects for next year look good with many seasoned squad members coming back.

J. V. BASKETBALL—Seated, left to right: Vinik, Ingalls, Mitchell, Goldman. Kneeling: Winters, Braverman, Flynn, Cohen, Kreuzer, Nobes, Davidson, Eggleston. Standing: Buckley, Meyers, Randall, McIntosh, Van DeMar, Mr. Shopes, coach; Haefner, Lofton, Rosenthal, Brown, Conrad.

Monroe Redjackets 1955-1956 Wrestling

WRESTLING—First Row, left to right: Bianchi, Sweetheimer, Seils, Cayley, Kokis, Rooney, R. Cellura. Second Row: Hoff, Rajca, Knob, T. Cellura, Murray, Russell, Johnson. On mat: Bowerman and Schmidt, co-captains.

Wrestling

Wrestling is fast becoming a popular sport at Monroe High as seen by the increasing number of Monroites turning out to watch meets. In his first as wrestling coach at Monroe, Mr. Strassner was able to turn out a team which ably represented Monroe in the league competition. Highlighting the season was the emergence of Dick Bowerman as undefeated city champion.

