

Wrestling

Varsity

Injuries Hamper Dansville Matmen

Coach Ted Scott and his Dansville High wrestling team were in a tough spot to be in as early as six months ago.

There have been some disappointing moments this season, Scott said. After opening the year with 40 wrestlers and "injury bug" struck and put the varsity performers on the skids.

They have been some disappointing moments this season, Scott said. After opening the year with 40 wrestlers and "injury bug" struck and put the varsity performers on the skids.

Matmen To Face Keshequa

Coach Ted Scott's Dansville High wrestlers will open the home phase of the schedule Friday evening, hosting Keshequa.

The squad was scheduled to wrestle at Hawesling High in Utah last night. Kevin Mark is assisting Scott with coaching duties this year.

Members of the squad are Frank Alexander, Tom Alverson, Mike Beardsley, Andy Briggs, David Briggs, Paul Briggs, Chris Burger, Mike Caffee, Sam Col-latar, George Conner, Bill Davis, Steve Davis, Mike Dooling, Aaron Farrell, Larry Fickaw, Jon Gilman, Randy Grasso, Rick Hinds, Jeff Hoffman, Shawn Knap, Pete Krachter.

Also, Steve Lewis, Troy Long, Chris McIntosh, Jim McLaughlin, Dennis Nolan, Tim O'Connor, Mike Quinn, Steve Rayner, Wally Robarge, Kevin Sullivan, Jeff Spencer, Don Steele, Rob Stone, Tucker Wallace, Bob Welch, Chad West, Mike Young, Tom Young, Dave Young, Ray Zornoff.

The Mustangs will host California next Wednesday and on Dec. 17 take part in the annual Campbell Invitational Tournament.

Row 1: D. Young, J. McLaughlin, B. Grasso, S. Knap, Row 2: B. Stone, B. Davis, G. Conner, Row 3: J. Hoffman, B. Welch, C. McIntosh, M. Beardsley, P. Krachter

Row 1: B. Hinds, T. Wallace, D. Steele, S. Lewis, S. Rayner, T. Young, Row 2: J. Gilman, M. Coffey, M. Young, A. Farrell, M. Quinn, T. Long

Junior Varsity